Easy walks

From the centre of Pozza to Bagni

This "Easy walk" starts from the Church of San Nicolò: leave the street Strada de Meida and access on the left side street Strada de Freina, which becomes a dirt road and after a while it bisects. At the crossroads, take the footpath that descends rightwards in the wood. From here, the itinerary flattens out until it joins the foot/cycle lane, leading to Soraga. Here turn right skirting firstly the purification plant for water and then the Avisio River, until you reach Pozza and the municipal building in the hamlet of Meida. Near the building, cross the square Piazza de Comun, and arrive at "Promenada enlongia Ruf", the route that follows the flow of Avisio River. Ascend it rightwards following the flow of San Nicolò stream until the Church of San Nicolò.

Passepartout

Music at "Canazei under the stars"

Tonight the last appointment with "Canazei under the stars", starting at 9.00 pm in the street Strèda de Pareda - closed to traffic for the event. The village turns into a stage, welcoming different performance. The Band "Musega Auta Fascia" has the honour to inaugurate the show with trumpets and drums sounds, and afterwards several corners of the street host characteristic folks groups playing rock, rap, and pop pieces to entertain the youngsters. On the stage, there will be also the dancers of the Folk Group, wearing the traditional clothing, that dance on the music from Val di Fassa and South Tyrol. Everybody is invited to taste the sweet delicacies of the Ladin tradition, typical of the feast days, and to visit the shop, open until late at night.

Did you know that...

At the end of the Second World War Ladin people tried to be included in the South Tyrol Matter, in order to obtain the formal recognition as a particular ethnic group, and perhaps even to go beyond the internal division among the three Provinces of Bozen, Trento and Belluno. Very important for this reason was the meeting at Passo Sella, on the 14th July 1946: three thousand Ladins, coming from all the territory around Sella Group and Ampezzo, met each other on their mountain, in order to reaffirm their right for Unity.
