The "Sounds" with Mannoia, Marcorè, Barbarossa

Neri Marcorè was already host of the "Sounds of the Dolomites", and also Fiorella Mannoia (photo, who sang in 2009 at Fuciade. Luca Barbarossa, who performs for the first time for this festival, united the trio in his album "Barbarossa social club", signing with both artists.

Three incredible artists for an unprecedented show. Today at 2.00 p.m. on the meadows of Fuciade, takes place the most awaited concert of the "Sound of the Dolomites" summer festival, with Fiorella Mannoia, Luca Barbarossa and Neri Marcorè as protagonists. The three friends propose for their today's performance the common experiences they lived together in theatres and in concerts. To take part to the event, you'd better reach Fuciade in the morning, because due to the location's limits, the main street SS 346 towards San Pellegrino Pass will be closed to traffic in both directions, from 10.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m. When you park on the pass (around 2000 parking spots), make for "Pra Burt", venue of the concert, through an easy path in slightly ascent (45 min on foot).

High-level walks

From Col de Rossi to Fedaia Pass

This "High-level walk" kicks off from Col de Rossi: get there by cable car that departs from Canazei. Descend to Belvedere Refuge and then, rightwards through a meadow, walk along a dirt road till Fredarola Refuge at 2.388 m (0,20 h). Follow then the footpath no. 601, mostly flat with some ascents, till the refuge Viel dal Pan at 2.432 m (0,40 h). Continue for a quite long stretch enjoying the landscape over Tofane. You arrive then to a crossroads. Descend now rightward and diagonally toward the dam, and through a steep slope to be covered with caution in its last stretch. You will reach the state road of Fedaia Pass, in front of the Refuge Marmolada "E. Castiglioni" (2.054 m; 1,20 h; 2 hrs.). You come back to Canazei by bus that stops at the end of the path.

Artistic dialogue "Syntony in Symphony"

Tiziano Deflorian, sculptor from Tesoro, and Luis Spineto, painter from Chile. What do they have in common? A part from their friendship, also the exhibition "Sintonia in Sinfonia", open until the 1st September at Navalge Centre in Moena (timetable: 5.00 – 7.30 p.m. and 9.00 – 10.00 p.m.). Deflorian, who is professor of plastic discipline at the High School of Arts in Pozza, proposes a selection of his wooden sculptures, which represents at best beauty with a little of irony. Spineto offers for the exhibit the brightness of his colours, with canvas depicted with geometric shapes, which stand out thanks to the intense colours. Two different personalities that combine their works in a stimulating artistic dialogue, which intrigues the visitors.

Did you know that...

In the Ladin Valleys of Dolomites live nowadays around 35 thousand people, the majority of which speak Ladin as mother tongue. The idiom gives this people the chance to legitimate their ethnic-linguistic group as independent. Despite its ancient origins (fusion between the languages Reathian and Latin) the scientific acknowledgement of Ladin dates back to the second half of the nineteenth Century. Some experts, after researches, find out that its presence was actually in three linguistic spots: around the Dolomites, in Friuli and in Grigioni (Switzerland).

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
