Alta Fassa Alpines celebrate their 50 years of activity

Tomorrow night, after the concert of the "Musega Auta Fascia", the celebration for the Alpine Group Alta Fassa (photo) will be regaled (till midnight) by the group "Tiroler Alpenklang", a lively band that involves everybody in folk dancing thanks to their music.

Yesterday night, together with the opening of the pavilion nearby the street Strèda de Pareda in Canazei, was inaugurated the 3-day party to celebrate the 50th anniversary of ANA Alta Valle di Fassa foundation. Today the pavilion opens at midday, where you can taste the alpine dishes and listen to the folk-rock music of "Dolomiten Bier Band", which plays also at 8.30 p.m. The most important moment takes place on Sunday, when at 9.30 a.m. many Alpines from Trentino pass through the centre toward the war memorial for the celebration and the flag raising. In the pavilion, at 10.30 a.m., the Mass, afterwards the lunch and then the performance of Fanfara ANA from Trento, Schuhplattler from Campitello, Group Folk from Canazei, Alba, Penia and "Musega Auta Fascia".

Passepartout

"Femena" by Sara Giannatempo

A meeting point among provocation, satire, poems: the shots of "Femena", by Sara Giannatempo, are on exhibit until 14th September (timetable: 5.00 – 7.00 p.m. and 9.00 – 10.00 p.m.). Photographs as paintings. Women as interpretes of scenes with cinematographic framing. Nothing is insignificant in the images of Giannatempo, artist from Milan, graduated at the Accademia delle Belle Arti in Brera, who boasts several and important experiences with the photographers Tomasi, with whom she specialized in post-production and printing. Giannatempo resorts the digital adjustment in order to reduce the distance between photography, cinema, painting and put in contact her creative research to the female universe, seen through the irony. The photos are to be seen as a sequence of an editing.

Did you know that...

In 1451, the Prince Bishop of Brixenthe drew up the first Statute of Val di Fassa, in which he presented a list of duties to be respected by the population of the valley. Anyway, the most ancient elements of Fassa's common law date 1450, with the document written in Vigo, whose title is "Vermerkt die alten Herkommen des Talls Eves" (German for: Ancient common law of Fassa's Community) and 1480, with a document that contains all the petitions and complaints of Val di Fassa's people towards the Bishop.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
