Dolomiti Lagorai Bike is "Grand Tour"

Among the itineraries of "Grand Tour", 1 is entirely within Fassa's borders (stage1: anti-clockwise Tour): 51,7 km, start and arrival in Moena, through Buffaure, Ciampac, Canazei, Mazzin, Moncion, Gardeccia: Ciampedie, Vallonga, Tamion, Soraga (also by ropeways).

Fassa, Fiemme, Primiero and Valsugana. That big is the size of the Dolomiti Lagorai Bike, a bike circuit composed of 1200 km of routes touching even the 2000 m of altitude, enhanced this year by the "Grand Tour". The circuit is a ring designed to be ridden in six legs, and the distance is either 320 or 353 km (depending on whether you tackle it: respectively clockwise and anti-clockwise), with altitude gaps that vary from a minimum of 8.790 m to a maximum of 10.470 m. The scenic routes are covered by riding 50/60km a day (mostly on dirt road), for a daily average of 6 hours-riding. You can find details, pictures, descriptions and GPS tracks for the various itineraries on the practical pocket map, which is available at every Tourist Office and on www.fassa.com.

Amazin hikes

From Pozza to Val Jumela's pasture

This "Amazing hike" starts from the centre of Meida (Pozza di Fassa): go to the lower cable car station of Buffaure, which brings you in few minutes up on Pian del Buffaure (at 2.050 m). From here you take the footpath no. 613 eastwards, that skirts the southern ridge of Buffaure, reaching the highest point on the peak named Sas d'Adam (2.430 m), from where you enjoy an amazing landscape over the most beautiful peaks of Fassa's Dolomites. The path descends gradually until it reaches Sella Brunech (2.428 m: 1,45 h). Continue the itinerary that descend along the green Val Jumela valley, where you can meet grazing cattle along path no.644, and then on a wide mule track that arrives at Pera (2,45 hrs.). In twenty minutes, on the easy valley bottom's path, you go back to the centre of Pozza.

Baroque melodies "In ricordo dei miei cari"

The "Quartetto Barocco", composed of Piero Toso, Guido Furini (violin), Gianni Chiampan (cello) and Chiara de Zuani (harpsichord), performs tonight at 9.00 p.m. in the Church of San Vigilio in Moena. The concert "In memoria dei miei cari" organized by members of the Vadagnini family from Moena to the memory of relatives passed away, proposes four pieces of famous composers, like Georg Friedrich Händel, Giuseppe Tartini and Antonio Vivaldi. The "Quartetto Barocco" was built up by musicians who already worked for other groups ("Solisti Veneti" and "Orchestra da Camera di Padova e del Veneto"), with the purpose to play the most representative repertoire of the seventeenth century with the "suonata a due e a tre", considered a key feature of the Italian musical literature.

Did you know that...

Virginio Dezulian del Garber, son of Maria Piaz (mother of Pordoi) was the favourite nephew of Tita Piaz. He was a strong and agile alpine guide, guiding King Alberto and other nobles. He opened many routes and in 1926 participated to the 1st expedition on the northwest pinnacle of Schenon del Latemar with his uncle, and in 1928, with Tita again, opened a challenging route on the north face of Catinaccio. In 1929 ran with his wife Pina the Vajolet Refuge, and in 1931, together with Tita, gained the southern pillar of Sass Pordoi. He died in 1954 when he was 53 years old, due to a disease.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
