"Dolomites Ducati Tour" again in Val di Fassa

On Sunday the Ducati riders' group passes in Val di Fiemme as well, ascending to Pramadiccio Pass, reaching later Obereggen, Ega, San Valentino Nova Levante, the Carezza Lake, Costalunga Pass (lunch break) and finally return to Soraga.

Soraga, from today until Sunday, is the head quarter of the "Dolomites Ducati Tour". The streets turn into very special asphalt strips opening the way through the beautiful Fassa's mountains and passes. Motorbikers come here one more time with their red motorbikes of the famous enterprise from Borgo Panigale. The riders arrive tonight in the valley, where they will get the road book for the following day's tour. The departure is scheduled at 9.00 a.m. for a 160 km ride through San Pellegrino Pass, Cadore, Giau, Falzarego and Valparola passes, reaching Corvara and the Gardena and Sella passes, with a lunch break on Col Rodella (2440 m) with the special "Red Sounds in the Dolomites". On Sunday a new ride which is 90 km long, with mix grilled on Costalunga Pass.

Easy walks

From Pozza to Malga Crocifisso

This "Easy Walk" starts from Meida, the hamlet in the surroundings of Pozza di Fassa. When you arrive here, ascend the street Strada de Meida, with turns into the street Strada Ruf de Ruacia. Before arriving at the bridge on the Stream Ruf de San Nicolò, nearby the Restaurant La Soldanella, take the dirt road on the right that you find before the bridge. The route is easy at the beginning, and then becomes a little bit steeper while ascending, with several sharp turns and the alternation between woods and pastures. Thereafter the path flattens out and merges into the asphalt street of the San Nicolò Valley. With a short stretch in ascent, you will reach the Malga Crocifisso Hut (at 1.526 m). To go back follow the asphalt street that descends till the hamlet.

Passepartout

"Top wine" at high altitude

On 12th October, thirty two producers of excellent wines from Trentino will meet at 2950m on the Sass Pordoi. The "Simposio Top Wine" boasts this year its 15th edition, and takes place as usual on the panoramic Dolomites' Terrace - Maria Refuge (reach it in 4 min. by ropeway from the Pordoi Pass). The event - not only for expert - was born from the collaboration between Società Incremento Turistico Canazei, Fassa and Fiemme's Sommeliers and the Associazione Vignaioli Trentino. In the entrancing scenery of the Dolomites, wine is matched with other local high quality products, like salami made by Martin Speck, cheese of the Caseificio Sociale Val di Fassa dairy (also with the famous "Cher de Fasha") and the delicacies of Boninsegna Bakery.

Did you know that...

In the past, the juvenile emigration (the young shepherds and the girls working as servants or baby sitters) in the Dolomites' area had different directions. Young people from Val di Fassa could earn some money working as shepherds for the rich "bachegn" from Val Gardena, whereas the youngsters from Gardena moved to Tyrol to improve their income. On the contrary, young people from Fodom worked on Fassa's pasture. Rumours said: "If there were poor people in Fassa, there were even poorest people in Fodom, where the life was so hard that everybody could starve".

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
