"Radio Zastava": Balkan notes in Moena

On the occasion of the concert of Moena's Marching Band (the picture is taken from the band's archive), the winners of 4th "Paolo Chiocchetti" music contest will be awarded. Paolo Chiocchetti was the music director of the band for many years, until he disappeared in 2010.

The passionate balkan-rock mix of "Radio Zastava", 2005 found band coming from Friuli, will inaugurate Moena's patron saint's festival. The celebration starts today in the early morning, at 8.30 am, with the lovely musical awakening along the town streets played by Moena's Marching Band. The band is the organizer and promoter of the festival and this year celebrates its 160th foundation anniversary. Here a sample of the day-programme: at 10:00 am special Mass; traditional lunch and marching band concert in Navalgè's big tent; at 5.00 pm "Radio Zastava" show, followed by the concert of "Vlado Kumpan und seine Musikanten" at 8.30 pm. Until 29 June the festival goes on with its successful mix of folk music and local food and drink specialties.

Amazing walks

From Mazzin to Val Udai

From the centre of Mazzin walk up Street do Ruf and the road Val de Udai (path no.580). After passing a bridge, walk on a steep asphalt road and arrive at path no.579. Cross the gravel bed of the river and then Udai River. Got in the wood, ascend towards the fortification of Zocol and its beautiful waterfalls. After few hairpin turns you arrive on a flatland, cross the stream and get to Pian de Udai. Continue to walk, crossing several times the stream. Keep going upwards and diagonally on the grassy slope you will exit on the upper side of Val di Dona (2,30 hrs). You descend now with path no.577 to Fontanazzo (1,45 h) or to Campitello (paths no.578 and 532) crossing the meadows towards Camerloi, Pas de Ciaréjoles and Val Duron (2,30 hrs).

Passepartout

Library itineraries...

Libraries are an endless source of ideas and stories. Some of most fascinating travels in life are carried out exactly within libraries: starting from best-sellers, thrillers, romantic novels, essays, news and photo reports, cookbooks, children tales, all the way to films, dvd and internet surfing. Modern and up-to-date, Fassa's libraries can be regarded as a cosy living room, full of volumes to consult or borrow, especially during holiday, when people can enjoy free time and relax (maybe lying on a green meadow). Library of Fassa valley are located in Canazei, Vigo and Moena and for those, who want to deepen local culture, language and history, the library of Cultural Ladin Institute will definitely be the best choice.

Did you know that...

This is the woth-telling legend of Merisana, queen of Dolomitic nymphs called Ondine. She was a beautiful girl, struggling for the happiness of every creature in the world. The King of Sunrise stopped at a brook and saw Merisana. He fell in love with her and married her. She asked an hour of happiness for all creatures in exchange. Nature offered fronds, flowers and fruits. Dwarfs created a new tree for her: the larch. But on the wedding day the larch withered. Merisana laid his veil on the tree and it greened again. Still today, in spring, the fairy veil is visible on larches.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
