"Marmolada, la città di ghiaccio" opens to its visitors

The "ice-city" was 12 km long, made of tunnels and dormitories, each able to host up to 70 men, who could move without being noticed by the enemies. The "city" has also been enlightened for a while, thanks to the electricity from Canazei.

The real "city", made of white galleries, posts, kitchens and dorms for the soldiers has disappeared because of the moving and melting of the perennial snows (still shielding many evidences). But "Marmolada, la città di Ghiaccio", (the ice-city) rebuilds the life conditions and the atmosphere of this outpost, invented by the engineer Leo Handl, tenant of the Landesschützen. The Events Committee and the Municipality of Canazei will inaugurate the exhibit today at 9.00 p.m. by the Town Council, to celebrate the centenary of the burst of the Great War. Several heirlooms, around sixty interesting old pictures and an explicative 8 m. high panel, hanged on the in-view structure of the lift, will be shown. The exhibit will be open until the 20th of September (8.30 a.m. – 7.00 p.m.).

"Come un fiume": a story about the migrants from Trentino

"Come un fiume" (like a river) will be on stage tonight at 9.00 p.m. by "La Gran Ciasa" in Soraga. The show is dedicated to the emigrants from the area of Trento who moved to the borderline territories of the Austro-Hungarian Empire during the 19th Century. Directed by Flora Sarrubbo, co-produced by Aida, Atti and Theamus and supported by Provincia di Trento, it tells the story of a seasonal migration that became permanent for entire valleys. A river of people looking for its sea. Thousands of people left their homeland for places "inside" the Empire that were actually far, geographically but also because of language, culture and religion, such as Bosnia Herzegovina, Romania and Hungary. These events remained unknown for long, to re-emerge only at the dissolving of the Iron Curtain.

Did you know that...

Father Massimiliano Mazzel de l'Ors was born in Gries (1900 – 1977). He attended the middle school and the seminar in Trento, and was ordained priest in 1924. He has been one of the most staunch supporters of the Ladin trend: thanks to him, the first Ladin radio broadcast was transmitted in 1946 by the Rai from Bolzano. In 1963 he became president of the Union of the Ladins of Val di Fassa, in 1966 he founded the magazine "La Veis" (Avisio) and in 1967 he and professor Luigi Heilmann published the first dictionary Ladin of Val di Fassa – Italian, still a reference point for Ladin scholars.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
