Paths: your feedbacks and pictures on Fassa.com

The "Hiking Tours" area of www.fassa.com actually collects 21 mountain bike tracks and 35 excursions at altitude to cover on foot. But this is really an ongoing section; it will be soon enriched with the valley bottom walks, also wishing to receive your feedback.

When we really enjoy an experience, we would like to tell it straight to everybody, possibly with words and pictures to share it. And this is exactly what will be possible in a few days on Fassa.com, in the section "Hiking Tours". All hikers, both those who know Fassa inside out and want to give advice or recommend anything and the new guests who want to express their feelings about their first time on the paths of the valley - after an easy subscription - will have the possibility to enter a dedicated area and insert feedbacks but also to upload pictures. We are looking forward to receiving not only hikers', but also bikers' contributions, expressing opinions, sensations and sharing with both guests and inhabitants of the valley unforgettable snapshots of their trips around Val di Fassa.

Amazing hikes

From La Rezila refuge to Malga Colvere to Fango

From Ronchi (over Moena), take the first segment of the cable car to Lusia. Go down and walk towards the refuge La Rezila. From here, ascend until you meet a crossroads and make for path n. 625. Pass by Malga Colvere and proceed on the forest road till the crossroads with path n. 634 (to be ignored). After few steps, at a hairpin turn, leave that street and turn right downward the hollow. You will arrive to a steep slope, and then to the lowest boundary of Ciadinon. Go ahead passing a crossroads, and pass over the stream Rif del Ciadinon. Come down through the wooden slopes, passing by the ancient trenches of the Great War. Now take the forest road which comes from Ronchi and, beyond the stream, ascend to the main road towards Fango (1,40 h; 2 h) and go back to Ronchi along the forest road.

Passepartout

Thirteen playgrounds, thousand adventures

Children's favourite activity is to play in the open-air, in the green: Val di Fassa is an oasis full of this kind of possibilities: there are 13 playgrounds in the villages along the valley, equipped with safe wooden structure where to climb, slide and wobble, inventing never-ending adventures. The wide green space allows parents to relax while their children have fun. There is at least a playground in each village of the valley: Moena (Strada de Pont de Mur e Strada de Ischia); Soraga (Stradon de Fascia); Vigo (Strada de Coltura); Pozza (Piazza del Malghèr); Pera di Fassa (Strada Jumela); Mazzin (Strèda de Chiavacia); Ciampestrin (Strèda de le Roe); Fontanazzo (Strèda de l'Albolina); Campitello (loc. Ischia); Canazei (Strèda del Cerenà); Alba (Strèda dò Veisc) and Penia (Strèda de Ciamp Trujan).

Did you know that...

The small San Volfango's Church in Moena is one of the oldest in Val di Fassa. Consecrated in 1432, it was painted several times on all its facades. According to the experts, the most important fresco of the entire cycle is that representing San Martino and the poor, dating back to the 2nd or the 3rd decade of the 15th century, next to a portrait of Nicola da Tolentino. The work is in courtly style, as underlined by the clothing (typical of ancient fashion) of the saint cavalier. All the authors of the paintings in the Church are unknown.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
