The mountain beer's festival

The programme of the festival presents: guided excursion with an expert taster "A spas con na Bira" (wandering with a beer) at 9.30 a.m., opening of the stands (4.00 p.m.), the farm "Ciasa do Parè" makes the cheese (5.30 p.m.), music with the "Bonderes" (9.00

Paying attention to products and with that extra oomph in taste. Mountain breweries meet in Ischia in Campiello, from the 18th to the 20th of July, for the festival "Na bira te Fascia" (A beer in Fassa). With Zahre Bier (Carnia), Birrificio Bionoc' (Mezzano di Primiero), Birrificio Fiemme (Daiano), Batzen Braü (Bolzano), Brasseria Alpina (San Germano Chisone) and Birrificio Amiata (Monte Amiata), the event proposes tasting labs, excursions with the mountain guides around the group of Sassolungo, exhibitions of dairy producers and live music. After yesterday's inauguration, food and local craftsmanship stands open today at 4.00 p.m., at 5.30 p.m. follows the guided tasting, with mountain beer and salami from Fassa. At 9.00 p.m., music and dances with the band "Cajones".

Amazing hikes

From Costalunga to Paschè

The route starts from the green Passo Costalunga (1.745 m), which is easy to reach driving from Vigo di Fassa for ten minutes more or less. Once you get here, leave your car and walk towards Carezza Lake until you reach Hotel Alpenrose, in the nearest of the lower station of Paolina chairlift, which goes to refuge Paolina at 2,125 m. Here you can continue the excursion on path n. 539, and then on path n. 549: in half an hour walk, you will get to Roda di Vael refuge along a beautiful panoramic trail (2,238 m). From here, descend following path n. 548, along the valley called Paschè, where lots of pretty marmots live. Go ahead on a mule track to Costalunga Pass (1,15 h). From here, it takes about half an hour to get back to the chairlift, following the dirt path parallel to the street (2,30 hs).

Passepartout

"The musical night" for charity

The group "Des Etoiles" comes back to perform in Val di Fassa, directed by Mauro D'Alessio, who is also show director tonight at 9.00 p.m. by the events pavilion in Pozza di Fassa, to present "La notte dei musical" (The musical night). This is a "pot pourri", with live songs and dances, of tracks from the most famous musicals. The show (access on free donation) aims at supporting, through the association Lifeline Dolomites, the activity of Carlo Spagnolli, a doctor from Trento, who since 1975 is engaged in humanitarian missions in Africa. The funds collected tonight will support a project on diagnosis and early therapy against uterus cancer, an initiative of Spagnolli in Zimbabwe together with Provincia di Trento, and the realization of the first sector of cardiology intensive care at the hospital of Chinhoyi.

Did you know that...

During the 2nd half of the 17th century, main altars for the Churches of the Valley, like Fontanazzo, Soraga, Vigo and some localities in other valleys came out of the workshop of sculptor and decorators Grober. The renaissance style of the time shows in the holy works by the "Grober" (father and two sons following him) a joyous evolution, compared to the first column altars introduced during the same period in Moena. The Grober, in fact, put more columns, with spirals and vines in relief with angels, breaking the pediment in order to confer a pierced aspect.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
