"Incubo bianco": considerations under the avalanche

From a real story, to the pages of a novel, to the stage. "Incubo Bianco" (White Nightmare) is a performance realised by the theatre company Eos from Bolzano, taken from the book "Mi sono perso nel mio bosco" (I got lost in my wood), by Angelo Iellici from Moena, known as Angel de La Rezila, manager of a refuge and member of the local mountain rescue. The show, on stage tonight at 9.00 p.m. by the parish theatre in Campitello, tells the tragic story of Iellici, buried under an avalanche. Acting, music and pictures alternate during the performance, The actors accompany the public along an atmosphere charged with pathos, with the avalanche in the middle of the scene, together with the considerations and fears of this man buried alive, waiting for the rescue, also able to find ironic ideas, to exalt the tragedy of the moment.

Did you know that...

Do you wish to know the weather forecast? Are you in the nearest of Mazzin? Just go to Piazz de S. Maria Madalena, where you will find, near the fountain, a real weather station with thermometer, barometer and hygrometer in order to be informed with certainty on temperatures, humidity and atmospheric pressure: these are 3 parameters that reveal us whether the sun will shine or if the rain will fall over our mountains. Four Ladin inscriptions, moreover, enrich the base of the station: these are four reliable proverbs related to the climate conditions.
