Did you know that...

On the 10th of August 1909 the mountain guides (Campitello, 18th July 1869- 24th January 1949) and Angelo Dibona (Cortina d'Ampezzo, 7th April 1879 - 21st April 1956) fulfilled the first memorable ascent on the polished rock of Sasso delle Undici, on the chain of Marmolada. The two famous guides climbed with two customers, Mr & Mrs Mayer. The four climbers fulfilled a track that was almost always on the summit, on a long rocky spur, oriented from north to south, piercing the ice. That's why it was often called Sasso delle Dodici or Sas de Mezdi (Noon Rock).

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
