Seven days with "Cher de Fascia"

By the tourist offices, the brochure on "Alla scoperta del Cher de Fascia" is available, where you can find, indicated day by day, the tastings, activities and visits programmes, as well as the shops where it is possible to buy the cheese for a convenient price.

From the 24th to the 31st of August everybody "Alla scoperta del Cher de Fascia" (discovering Cher de Fascia). A gastronomic week to honour this washed-crust cheese, its pungent aroma and its scent of grazing and ripe fruit, that represents the "Heart" of the valley. The event will be inaugurated tomorrow at "A pè ta Mont" in the hollow of Fuciade, and will go on until next Sunday with tastings, aperitifs and thematic menus, combined with amusing activities for children. To complete the whole, guided visits at Caseificio Sociale Val di Fassa in Pera. The cheese factory hosts a section of the Ladin Museum, dedicated to cheese-making, showing the different phases of this procedure, made with the milk of the cows owned by the 38 partners of the "Mèlga" (Ladin term for dairy).

Historical outings

From Moena to the wood boundary stones

This track recalls the fascinating history of Val di Fassa, looking for some boundary stones that once were the borderline between the Bishopric of Bressanone and Trento, now camouflaged along paths plunged among Norway Spruces and Scotch Pines woods. From Piazz de Sotegrava square in Moena, climb Strada Salejada and Strada de Moene streets. Reached Hotel Alle Alpi, turn left and ascend Strada Saslonch street, that permits to reach the locality called "Col dei Soldai". From here, follow the street towards Soraga. Along the path, cross the green meadows of Palua, till you meet the first road that ascends from Soraga. On the outer hairpin turn towards Moena, ascend to the wood that follows the borderline between the two villages, where the boundary stones are. Come back along the same route.

Passepartout

Alpine troops' country fair

Always forefront, with their black feathers on their hats, and the spirit of someone who is available for the rescue and the solidarity to those who are in a tight spot, the Alpine troops are appreciated by everybody. And, from yesterday till Sunday, the ANA group Alta Val di Fassa (that last year celebrated, through interesting initiatives, 50 years since its foundation), headed by Christian Dantone, is celebrating in the square beside the roundabout of Strèda de Pareda. Today at 12.00 p.m., the kitchen opens for the typical lunch with polenta and sausage, available also for accompanied by the music notes of "I Pazedins", Tomorrow, from 12.00 p.m., possibility to taste the traditional plate accompanied by the folk music by "Andreas Terzer", that will gladden the evening too, from 7.00 p.m. to 11.00 p.m.

Did you know that...

The group of Catinaccio has always been dividing the people speaking different idioms and that have different cultures: on the west side live the people of Val d'Ega and Tires, both German speaking, while on the east side of this long mountain chain we find the Ladins, with their particular language, result of an ancient fusion between the Raetic language and Ladin. People of South Tyrol call this mountain "Rosengarten", from the legend of King Laurin and his flowered garden, while Ladins call it "Ciadenac".

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
