Clear the way for children at "A pè ta Mont"

Fuciade, in the area of Soraga, can be reached from S. Pellegrino along a short walk (40 min) or by bus (against payment). Reached the hollow, we find 7 between huts and stands offering refreshments. At 10.00 a.m. a Mass will be celebrated in the small church.

The magic place is ready: wide places to run, meadows, flowers and hay to have fun. But "A pè ta Mont" (Barefoot among the grazing), today at 9.00 a.m., in the wonderful hollow of Fuciade on San Pellegrino, there will be also the workshops to play: "Piccolo casaro" (10.00 a.m.; € 3.00), learning the tricks of cheese making with the experts of Caseificio Sociale Val di Fassa, and "Piccolo chef" to cook "Il mio canederlo", the traditional knödel (2.30 p.m.; € 3.00). But naturally the festival, among ancient knowledges and alpine flavours, reserves many gastronomic surprises for everybody, from the most refined to the most typical dishes, the folk music by "Tirolerstolz", "Die Verspielten" and "Haderkraiener" and even the representation of ancient professions, linked to the haymaking.

Amazing hikes

From Canazei to Val Duron

This "Amazing hike" starts from the centre of Canazei: follow Via Roma street to the area called Ciuch and here go up along Strèda F. Dantone street, leading to Strèda Dolomites street. Follow the pavement towards Campitello, till Hotel Caminetto: here cross the street, reach the hotel and take the path ascending slightly to "Bosch da Ronch" wood. The trail keeps ascending till it comes to the hairpin bends that lead to Pian, over Campitello. Follow the street crossing this picturesque hamlet and take the path beginning from Strèda de Fossèl street. Walk until Baita Fraine, in Val Duron. From here, you can reach Rifugio Micheluzzi. To go back, walk along the same route or descend the forest road leading to Campitello and on the nice walk along the Avisio river, come back to Canazei (3 hrs.).

Passepartout

And if we were the animals?

Squirrels, roe deers, foxes, stone martens, moles, spiders, hares, deers, owls, crows and, at altitude, even mouflons, chamoix, steenboks. The animals populating the mountains of Val di Fassa are many and of several species. Moving around the wood with caution, in silence and leeward (for some of them), you can see many of them. To know and learn their habits and all their funniest secrets you can take part, tomorrow from 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. at Buffaure over Pozza, to take part to "Facciamo finta che: gli animali siamo noi!", animated excursion for children and families along the new illustrating path about the animals living on our peaks. Booking is requested, by the tourist offices of the valley within today at 6.30 p.m. (lifts and eventual lunch at the refuge are at the expense of the kind guests).

Did you know that...

"Cercenà" or "cercenade" are toponyms that we find often along the valleys in the Dolomites. In Val di Fassa we find it in Canazei, but it is also in the near Predazzo, in Val di Fiemme and in some areas of the adjoining area of Belluno. This terms comes from the Ladin verb "cercener", that means cutting the wood in a certain area to enlarge the grazing area. Another toponym linked to the alp is Muncion-Monzon, picturesque hamlet over Pera, probably deriving from "monteson", that means the migration to summer pastures.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
