"Picnic gourmet" at Colvere with "Fassa Fuori Menù"

Booking: Alpine Pearls office in Moena within the 27th of August at 6.00 p.m. (€ 25 adults, € 15 under 12, including guided excursion and branded gadget of Val di Fassa; lifts from Ronchi to Valbona excluded: € 4 adults, free for born after 1.06.2006).

An unforgettable refreshment to reward a walk at altitude? There is "Picnic gourmet" for "Fassa Fuori Menù", the new food festival that hosts some local skillful chefs, performing in "show cooking" through squares, woods and grazing. On the 28th of August at Colvere, on Lusia Alp, the 3rd appointment of the festival takes place, with a guided excursion (starting from Ronchi) and a refined picnic cooked by two starred chefs, Paolo Donei (Malga Panna, Moena) and Stefano Ghetta (L Chimpl da Tamion, Vigo), with their capable colleagues Martino Rossi (Rifugio Fuchiade, S. Pellegrino), Paolo Naccari (La Montanara, Canazei) and Renato Prandi (Snow Thrill, Passo S. Pellegrino). Beyond the dishes by the cooks, tastes of "Puzzone", smoked ham, honey and infusions. Not to miss!

Easy walks

From Soraga to Barbide to the centre of Tamion

From the centre of Soraga take Strada del Cioch and then Strada de Barbida streets, to reach the namesake quarterhood. Arrived at the church, take the road on the right and, again on the right, pass under an arch vault and go left towards the mountain. Go on straight and then to the right through woods and meadows to reach the flat in a wood of larches and firs. A small hill on the left is ideal to admire the view over Soraga, Moena and Tamion, perched high among the meadows. Go on straight and then along some turns that bring to a grade where thousand year old larches stand. After an ancient sun-burned hayloft, enter the hamlet of Tamion. Here you will meet two fountains where you can refresh, afterwards you will reach the centre of the hamlet. Go back along the same track.

Passepartout

Walkin' Jazz Quartet at the "Summer Festival"

The most beautiful tracks by Lucio Battisti, Giorgio Gaber, Fabrizio De Andrè, Lucio Dalla and Mina are the in the repertoire of Walkin' Jazz Quartet, in concert tomorrow at 2.00 p.m., in the green hollow of Ciampac over Alba di Canazei. The second to last appointment of "Ciampac & Buffaure Summer Festival", that in July and August brings to the two localities at altitude in Fassa, some original groups of the national panorama, points directly to the author music, revisited in jazz shades. Walter Civettini (trumpet), Stefano Raffaelli (livelectronics), Flavio Zanon (double bass) and Enrico Tommasini (drums) interpret songs that are real italian "cults". In case of bad weather the show will take place at 5.00 p.m. in the hall of the aquatic centre "Dòlaondes" in Canazei.

Did you know that...

At the end of XIX Century, the number of tourists that Val di Fassa hosted for a quite long period wa increasing. But nothing like the mass tourism we have today. The summer season lasted no more than 40 days, from the half of July to the end of August, and in the whole valley there were no more than twenty among hotels, lodging and houses that hosted tourists. Excluded few hotels that were already reknown, the structures were described as quite spartan in the travel diaries, especially by German and English mountaineers.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
