Soldiers' stories, for Carlos Gardel Trio

The music of "Carlos Gardel Trio" (picture) orients itself on Gardel's work, musician, singer and actor who has signed more than 500 tangos and 900 discographic recordings. In case of bad weather, the show will take place at 9.00 p.m., in the Town Council meeting room .

Carlos Gardel Trio works with beauty and folk music rhythm and performs today at 3.00 p.m. at Ciampedie over Vigo in "La Grande Guerra, storie di soldati", music and words. The instrumental group, composed by Gianni Muraro (clarinet), Marco Graziola (accordeon), Michele Tovazzi (double bass) and which sees also the presence of Roberta Kerschbaumer (playing voice), concentrates on Carlos Gardel's tango (1890 - 1935) and klezmer (Jewish) music. The today's show melts the melodies proposed by the trio with the pieces played by Kerschbaumer to honour, remember and reflect on human happenings, stories and sorrow that characterized that dark and terrible period that the First World War has been, even on the peaks of Val di Fassa.

Easy walks

From Pozza to the meadows of Ciancoal to Meida

This is an easy walk that starts from the bridge on the stream Avisio, that links Pozza with Meida: from here walk along the pavement that skirts the state street towards Pera. After about 200 m, leave it and go on walking along the stream. Follow the water flow till you reach the wooden bridge in Piciocaa. Cross the bridge and you will find yourself in front of a beautiful votive chapel that has been recently restored and in front of a wide clearing, well equipped with a playground. Follow the low path leading to the hamlet of Meida, through the wide meadows of Ciancoal. Reach the namesake paved road and start ascending a little bit. Here take Strada del Piz street and enter Meida where you will find San Nicolò's church. From here, walk along the central Strada de Meida street and come back to the start.

Passepartout

The itinerant show of "Canazei sotto le stelle"

Those who love to stroll a little bit after dinner, to enjoy the hamlet under the stars, today in Canazei at 9.00 p.m., will be stupefied by the entertainment and the joyous climate that invades the village. In every corner of Strèda Dolomites street, in fact, you will meet music bands, especially folk, but also bands playing contemporary hits to hit the dance floor and, obviously, "Musega Auta Fascia" that, in rhythm with the drum, attracts people and leads off the melodies, with its lively band repertoire. Moving along the way, people can assist to local folk music and Ladin traditional dance exhibitions and typical sweetnesses of Val di Fassa will be there to be tasted. Even several shops in the city centre will be open, for an unusual evening shopping (in case of bad weather, the event will be cancelled).

Did you know that...

"Son de sass e no me meve, son de crepa en Marmoleda, son na fia arbandonedada, e no sé per che resòn", that means: "I am made of rock and I can't move, I'm made of cracks on Marmolada, I'm an abandoned daughter and I don't know the reason why". These are the words that, following the legend, the beautiful Conturina sings, imprisoned in the rock of the Queen of the Dolomites, because of an evil spell by her cruel and jealous stepmother. It is also said that if you walk alone (and in silence) among the rocks of Valle Ombretta you can hear her sad song.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
