"Carmen" on stage at Theatre Navalge

The show put on stage by "OFI", that has been proposing a repertoire mixing classic and contemporaneity for years, is against payment: pre-sale (€ 20) by Alpine Pearl office in Moena (0039 0462 565038); sale at 8.00 p.m. at the cash (available tickets).

The opera masterpiece by Georges Bizet, "Carmen", will be presented tonight at 9.00 p.m. at Theatre Navalge in Moena by Orchestra Filarmonica Italiana, directed by Alessandro Arigoni. The dramatic story, inspired by a novel by Prosper Mérimée and adapted to the stage by the librettists L. Halévy e H. Meilhac, of the beautiful gypsy Carmen that makes Don José fall in love, in a Seville that (mid XIX Century) was the theatre of fights between soldiers and smugglers, shocked at the première in Paris in March 1875, because of its subject retained immoral and its nonconformist music. But in autumn in Wien, when Bizet had already died for a heart illness, it became a worldwide success, thanks to music integrations by Ernest Giraud that substitute the original played parts.

Easy walks

From Moena to Medil, Prà Compert and Penia

Reach the southern side of the sporting centre of Moena and take the dirt road that leads to Medil. Ascend passing through the green area of "Val" and come out of the wood next the hamlet of Medil. Cross it and, beside the small church, start ascending again on the paved roads (n. 517) towards Col de Moena. At the crossroads proceed on the flat, and then go right. Pass over a ramp coming out in the clearing of Prà Compert. Keep the limit of the wood and at a rock with white and red signals, reach the other side of the clearing. Here descend along a scarp, made easier by some stairs. The descent becomes easier and leads to the ancient hamlet of Penia. Come back to Moena through the meadows and the wood. After having left the forest road you will reach the hamlet of Sorte and then you will arrive in Moena.

Passepartout

A musicals' night for Lifeline Dolomites

It is an amusing show, merry and full of songs and ballets, but most of all it has a charity goal. This is "La notte dei musical", a refined collage of the most famous music shows, put on stage by the group "Des Etoiles" directed by Mauro D'Alessio, tonight at 9.00 p.m. by the events pavilion in Pozza di Fassa (access on donation). Artists sing and dance in person to sustain, through the local association Lifeline Dolomites, Carlo Spagnolli, the doctor from Trentino that has been engaged in many humanitarian missions in Africa since 1975. In Zimbabwe Spagnolli has recently started, with the help of Provincia di Trento, both a project on the diagnosis and the early treatment of the uterus carcinoma and the realization of the first ward of cardio intensive therapy at the hospital of Chinhoy.

Did you know that...

Several houses in Fassa were formerly decorated with frescos of saints. But differently from the inner paintings in the churches that recalled their miracles and life, those on the houses do not teach anything: these are, in fact, saints that can be evoked when needed and that intercede with God. The devotion processes were similar to the votive offerings, insomuch as the owner orders the painting of the saint of which he bears the name or to whom the nearest church is dedicated, reiterating this way the devotion and the fame of this saint for the local community.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
