Greedy discovers by "Chel dal formai"

The aroma of "Cher de Fascia", one of the cheese that can be tasted tomorrow after the visit to "L Malghier", moves from typical pungent notes at the beginning to pasture and fruit scents. During the aging, the cheese wheels are "hand-washed" by the cheese maker.

A house that joins production, history and curiosities about local cheese. This is Caseificio Sociale Val di Fassa (inaugurated in Pera in 2011) that hosts also "L Malghier", section of the Ladin Museum that shows the different stages of dairy making. The exhibition room, that tomorrow can be visit with a guide from 9.30 a.m. to 11.00 a.m., collects tools, milk containers, churns, cow and goatbells, maps of ancient pasture and shepherds' proverbs. It is also possible to admire pictures and videos that compare past and today's dairy production, At the end of the visit, tasting of local cheese, starting with "Cher de Fascia", whose gastronomic week had recently come to an end (€ 3.00). Easy walks

From Campitello to Cherpei

From the characteristic centre of Campitello, along Strèda de Morandin and then along Strèda de Col da Faé streets, cross the most ancient area of the village. Leave Strèda de Col da Faé street coverin, for few metres, Strèda de Cherpei street and going then straight along Strèda de Crousc. Beside the last house ascend along a short ramp. Beyond it, keeping the right, go towards the ski-lift along a narrow road tskirted by bunches. Before reaching it, follow the grassy track that leads to the old lifts' track, around ten metres down the last pillar. Go back to the narrow road to reach, along a light ramp, the hill of Cherpei. The place is well-shaded and ideal to let children play freely. Come back to the village along the same track.

Passepartout

Imagine a night at the cinema

It's amusing, exciting and leaves many dreams. The silver screen, with its stories and its pictures' persauding ability, is able to light up fantasy, donating moments of absolute well-being. This is its most enduring effect, if you choose to spend some pleasing hours at the cinema during the holidays. In Val di Fassa it is possible to see the most successful movies, the season previews and also some movies that you lost at home during the year. Cinema Marmolada in Canazei presents in fact all the moment's best visions, sometimes with more than one show a day. So, you can enjoy the projections in a room with 350 places, with digital dolby audio system. The cinema also offers an inside bar and a comfortable car park in front of the structure.

Did you know that...

The path that links Passo Fedaia to Passo Pordoi was used by the flour merchants from Belluno to cross the valleys quickly, avoding the valley bottom. The flour was usually given in change of craftsmanship objects around the Ladin valleys. That's why this track is called "Viel dal Pan". Giving importance to this track, from where you can have a unique sight over Marmolada, the German doctor, Karl Bindel, president of Bamberg "Doav-Cai", covered it at the end of the 19th Century and took care of its arrangement.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
