Light travelling with PanoramaPass

Since last summer, it is easier to get the PanoramaPass card, that lets you hike everywhere you want to, without using your car. The card is pursued not only at the ticket offices of the lift facilities, but also at the Val di Fassa Tourist Offices.

In Val di Fassa there aren't impossible goals. Especially for those who love to set off for a journey, hiking at high altitude, but also enjoying a panoramic view from the lifts of Val di Fassa. Important is to forget the stress of driving, while getting in touch with the environment with Panorama Pass. The card that entitles you to travel in the valley using without limits ropeways, cable car, chair lifts and the busses leading to the several passes. The card - which is valid from 9th June to 6th October 2013 - lets you conquer 300 km of landscapes and is available in three different formats, in order to satisfy everyone's needs: 3 days among 6, 6 days and 7 days among 13. That's the perfect philosophy letting you opt for an eco-friendly way to travel in your vacations.

High-level hikes

Tour of Sasso Piatto

Drive from Canazei to Sella Pass (13 km), and park at Passo Sella Refuge. Take path no.525 that heads to the saddle Sassolungo (2.681 m; 1,30 h) and to Toni Demetz Refuge. To reach it, the less-prepared hikers could take the cable car that departs from the car park. From Demetz the route skirts on a scree the Sassolungo Peak, till Vicenza Refuge. Descend on the hollow along path no.525, till the crossroads with path no.527. Take the latter that skirts the massif of Sasso Piatto till Giogo di Fassa (2.305 m; 1,30 h) and Sasso Piatto Refuge. Proceed on path no.4 passing by Sandro Pertini and Friedrich August Refuges (2.300 m) and thence to Rodella Saddle. Now walk back to the car park.

Passepartout

Guys: let's plant us here!

In the entrancing hollow of Ciampac, in front of the peaks Colac and Crepa Neigra, every one can learn the secrets of gardening. "Let's plant us here!" is the summer idea of "Sentieri in Compagnia". Children have the possibility to spend a morning in close touch with nature, with earth and sun. There are seeds and flowers, but also a character telling some stories. The event is scheduled for tomorrow (and every Tuesday till 3rd September). The meeting point is at 9.30 am at the lower station of Ciampac cable car. The return is at 12.30 p.m. Booking has to be discharged today within 6.00 pm at the tourist offices. The excursion is free of charge. Ticket for the cable car is not included.

Did you know that...

Father Massimiliano Mazzel de l'Ors, born in Gries (1900 - 1977), studied in Trento at the gymnasium and in the seminary, where he was ordained priest in 1924. Don Mazzel has been one of the strongest supporter of the Ladin culture, and in 1946, thanks to him, the first radio transmission was broadcasted at the Rai Bolzano. In 1963 was elected President of the Union di Ladins de Fascia, in 1966 founded the issue "La Veis", in 1967 published - in collaboration with Professor Luigi Heilmann - the first dictionary Ladin - Italian, still a benchmark for the ones who study the language.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
