Euromeeting: the wings of gliders

The parameters required to award the prizes to the winners are: max. height reached by the remote-controlled aircrafts, distance between two points, lower altitude reached from the take-off, altitude gap and average speed (photo: arch. Euromeeting).

The wind blowing on the Pordoi Pass is the protagonist of most eagerly awaited event of the summer for the aircraft modelling's fans: the Euromeeting boasts its 37th edition and takes place today and tomorrow in the area of Col de Cuc on the Pordoi Pass. The remote-controlled gliders take off from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m. and from 7.30 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. Even at night will the meeting astonish the onlookers, as at 9.30 p.m. in the Pecol square takes place a fascinating night flight: the models - equipped with lighting installation - fly in the sky almost touching the Dolomites' faces. Tomorrow night flights are scheduled as well and at 6.00 p.m. at the Hotel Bella Vista in Pecol, the organisation awards the participants who got the best score (due to strict parameters collected by Gps).

High-level walks

From Val Monzoni to Val San Nicolò

Drive to Val San Nicolò (4,5 km), park the car at the crossroads with Val Monzoni, near the chapel of crucified Christ. Follow the asphalt street that arrives at the wood. Go beyond the plank and take path no.641. You will cross a stream, a wood and arrive at the grazing of Val Monzoni. The path becomes steeper till the pass Pief (1,45 h). From here walk towards Palacia and Pecol, and descend on the left. You will arrive at the wonderful Lagusel Lake (0,15 h; 2 hrs.). Go through the green grazing and after finding the ancient road that descends to the valley bottom, walk on the Street de Rusci (0,40 h; 2,40 hrs.). Cross the stream Ruf de Sèn Nicolò, and after few metres take the asphalt road that leads downwards to the crucified Christ (1 h; 3,40 hrs.).

The climbing course for children at the Police Station

The Alpine Training Centre of the Police in Moena opens the doors to youngsters today and tomorrow (10 am - 12 pm and 1 pm - 6 pm) for the incredible "Climbing Day" experience. The guys from 5 to 16 years old have the possibility to enter in a real Police's school and experience the art of climbing, learning all the techniques of this sport, following the suggestions of the expert instructors of the Centre. Moreover, they can admire the dog unit in action, trained for the research and rescue of people run over by avalanches. In addition, everybody can inspect the vehicles of the Police that are on exhibit for the occasion. The educational event on the theme "mountain", is organized by the Municipality of Moena and the Val di Fassa Tourist Board.

Did you know that...

King Laurino and the Garden of Roses' legend was revisited, from Brothers Grimm, in the book Deutsches Heldenbuch (1886). The authors tell that Laurino, after kidnapping the beautiful Smilde, daughter of the King of Siria, took her on the mountains on the left side of Adige River. To make her happy he created an enchanted garden, but one day came Smilde's brother with the army and took the girl back home. Laurino was desperate and converted the garden in pinnacles that ever since reflect at dawn and dusk beautiful red glows, perpetuating the memory of those flowers.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
