After the successful last editions, the festival is back again, and proposes this summer six concerts every Tuesday till 3rd September. Various music genres are played (from pop music to folk, jazz and rock) always in an eco-friendly attitude towards the environment concerning the amplification. Onstage with Cinelli there will be also Giovanni Rovati (guitar) and Michele Belleri (bass guitar). The author translates in dialect some successful Italian and international pieces, making the show a real cabaret.

Easy walks

From Campitello to Pian

From Piazz de Ciampedel, at the crossroads with the streets Strèda de Salin and Strèda Sènc Felip e Giacum, you can find on the right the steps of the chairlift station to the Col Rodella. Ascend on a pathway, which is characterized by the presence of the small Churches of the Via Crucis, until the Hamlet called Pian. You can visit the small village that is one of the oldest housing clusters of the valley, where there are still some ovens for bread. To go back to Campitello, descend the paved street leading to the street Strèda de Col, and then at the starting point. Alternatively, in the opposite direction you can make for the road to Val Duron. After one kilometre, you reach the street that ascends to Campitello. The party of the Canederlo

It is for sure the icon of Dolomites' cooking: today from 8.00 p.m. in Piazz J.B. Massar in Vigo the celebration of the dumpling called Canederlo. "La festa del Canederlo" (The party of Canederlo-dumpling) is the ideal suggestion for a fanciful evening in the sign of healthy flavours from Val di Fassa. You can taste the "bales" (the Ladin name of dumplings), not only salty but also sweet, with a wine-pairing proposed by local wine cooperatives because the event is in collaboration with "Le Strade del Vino e dei Sapori del Trentino". For children there is also the funny workshop "I've done it by myself" (compulsory booking at the Tourist Office: 3€). Three degustation possibilities: 3 salted canederli (12€), 1 sweet or salted canederlo (5 €) or an oenological degustation 2,5€.

Did you know that...

The glaciations of the Quaternary period occurred in the last millions of years hit also Val di Fassa, especially the one called Würm. Ices covered at the time wide territories for examples the valleys Val San Nicolò and Val Monzoni, where the ice had a very thick layer, which joined at the actual Malga Crociffisso. The ice melting entails a strong pressure of the ice layers on the lateral faces of the mountains, and also an important erosion: when the ice definitely melted, there were numerous collapses at the base of Maerins, today covered by wood.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
