Tribute to Kurt Weill with Chorus Orchestra

Kurt Weill began his career as classic musician, but the abandonment of Germany for the Usa due to the ascent of Nazism made him get nearer to cabaret and cinema. In case of bad weather, the concert takes place at 9.00 pm at Teatro Navalgè.

The Pala da Rif, near Moena, is the venue hosting today at 4.30 the "Tribute to Kurt Weill" performed by the Chorus Orchestra. The third appointment of the festival "Moenarmonica" pays honour - in a striking contest - to Weill (Dessau 1900 - New York 1950), German composer who gathered popular music with the cultured one, theatre, cabaret and musical. Among the best composition "The threepenny opera", with the texts by Bertold Brecht, "Lady in the dark" (the lyricist was Ira Gershwin, brother of the famous George), Hollywood pieces like "Speak now", and unforgettable melodies such as "Youkali", "Je ne t'aime pas" and "Berlin im Licht". A trip through various genres proposed by the Chorus Orchestra, composed by ten musicians, some of whom from Val di Fassa.

High-level walks

From Alba to Contrin Refuge

The cable car in Alba di Canazei takes you up to Ciampac, where you walk through the grassy hollow and ascend leftwards to Forcia Neigra (1,30 h). Follow the path no.613, getting across a pebbly stretch thanks to an equipped rope, till you reach the cleft between Torre Dantone and Sas Neigher. Skirt then the rock, descending the ridge that separates Val San Nicolò from Val Contrin. Going eastwards you cross Varos, reaching in that way Passo San Nicolò (2.338 m). Cross the plain in front of the south face of Marmolada, descend Pré de la Vaces and skirt the rocks of Lasté de Contrin. You arrive at Contrin hollow, passing by the stream bearing the same name, ascending afterwards to the Refuge (1 h; 4 hrs.). You go back to Alba (1.517 m) through Val Contrin and conclusive steep hairpin turns (1h; 5,15 hrs.).

A Church for the poor

"Come vorrei una chiesa povera per i poveri" (I wish the Church was poor and for the poor) is one of the well-known sentence of Papa Francesco, at the beginning of his pontificate. It represents also the title of the today's meeting, which takes place at 9.00 p.m. in the chamber of Fassa Coop in Soraga and belongs to the festival "Summer Inspirations", promoted by the Deanery of Fassa, in collaboration with the Tourist Board and the Event Committees of the various villages. Guests tonight are: mons. Giancarlo Perego, director of the Fondazione Migrantes, pastoral organization belonging to CEI and active for the themes mobility and migration, and sister Gabriella Caldirola. She has been working for almost twenty years at the Giudecca prison in Venice, providing a precious support in terms of activities assistance.

Did you know that...

In the past, in Val di Fassa, once the youngsters get officially engaged, the Father used to read the public notifications for wedding for three Sundays, thence the future bride and groom began the preparations. Firstly, they wrapped the "guants a la fascèna", traditional clothes. Moreover, they brought to the relatives the invitations and the "segnes da noza", typical sweets such as "grostoi" and "grafons", common custom still nowadays. All occurred during the winter, as the weddings were celebrated in carnival time because people did not work in the fields.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
