The sunrise on Vajolet with Capossela's music

Vinicio Capossela (photo) born in Germany in 1965, lived in Emilia and in Milan. He is the author of the "Il Ballo di San Vito", "Ovunque proteggi", "Marinai, profeti e balene". In case of bad weather the concert takes place at 6.00 pm Teatro Navalgè in Moena.

A very special day borns tomorrow: the polish melodies of Vinicio Capossela welcome the dawn at Vajolet Refuge (6.00 am). In the heart of the mountain group Catinaccio the song writer - who's boasting success after success since 1990 (year of his 1st album "All'una e trentacinque circa") - proposes pieces of his last album "Rebetiko Gymnastas" (2012) for the occasion is "Antropos, the one who looks upwards, music for rocks, wind and snow". Together with Capossela the artist Psarantonis, from Crete. You can reach the venue either from Pera by shuttle (with fee and active till 3.00 am) till Gardeccia, then on foot for 1 hour, or from Vigo by Catinaccio cable way from 3.30 am, then on foot for 2 hours.

High-level walks

From Fuciade to Cirelle Pass to Alba

To undertake this amazing walk, drive from Moena to San Pellegrino Pass and reach Fuciade Refuge (0,40 h). From here, take path no. 607 that arrives through a taxing gravel slope at Cirelle Pass (at 2.683 m), with an altitude gap of 700 metres. The landscape is extraordinary from this saddle, and you can admire the most beautiful peak reaching 3000 m: southward the Pale di San Martino, westward the ridge of Cima Uomo, in front of you Cima Ombrettola and Sasso Vernale, beyond which you can recognize the imposing vertical face of Marmolada. Keep going on path no. 607 that descends through broad gravel gullies, and underneath Sasso Vernale. Turn left towards Val Contrin and its Refuge (2015 m; 6,10 hrs.). From here, you walk to Alba di Canazei on path no. 602 (1 h).

Passepartout

The "Giro delle Dolomiti" makes for Gardeccia

The most important stage in Val di Fassa, belonging to the Giro delle Dolomiti (Tour of the Dolomites), boasts in its 37th edition outstanding success: every year the number of participant increases. The bike event takes place from 28th July to 3rd August and is subdivided in 6 stages (but there's the short version with 3 stages), open to everybody. Bolzano is both the starting and arrival point. Today is the Penultimate leg 143 km long that decides the final rank, and the Timed cycle race starts from Pozza and arrives at Gardeccia in the heart of Catinaccio. The ascents is 6,2 km long, with an altitude gap of 613 m and steepness (average 9%) that reaches even the 20 %. The bikers arriving from San Lugano and Fiemme, after the ascent to Gardeccia, go back to Bolzano.

Did you know that...

Someda's Fort, nearby the hamlet bearing the same name over Moena, let people feels nowadays its abandon state, but you can still perceive its imposing structure. Built by the Austrians at the end of the eighteenth century, it is a quadrangular shaped building with granite ashlar, once equipped with two canons, two howitzers and four machine-guns and even a telephone relay with Fort of Dossaccio in Val Travignolo. Once passed under the Italian Army Property it became a warehouse. In 1927 was sold to privates and partially demolished to recover iron materials.
