"Festa ta Mont" with princesses and magic kingdoms

You can find the programme of "Festa ta Mont" at the Tourist Offices. To reach San Nicolò Valley, the shuttle service is available from 8.00 am to 11.00 pm, starting at Vidor (free park; round trip: 3 €), as the streets are closed to traffic.

Actors, story tellers, artists, jugglers and chefs just wait for you today and tomorrow in San Nicolò Valley for the "Festa ta Mont" (Party on the mountain). The event celebrates the Ladin culture: stories and legends whose protagonists are unhappy princesses and the mysterious kingdoms of the Pale Mountains. Two are the show not to be missed: "The legend of Ciambolfin" today at 3.00 pm, and "The lake of rainbow" tomorrow at 3.00 pm. Not only can you watch the representations taking place in the Villaggio dell'Arte, but also you can admire sculptures and painters working, listen to music, dance, play with hay, aerial ropeway, bow and harrows, and taste the traditional delicacies. Twenty are the stands cooking both salted and sweets dishes.

Easy walks

From Moena to Malga Roncac

This easy walk lets you discover Moena's surroundings: cross the picturesque hamlet of Sorte and ascend till the turn before the Restaurant Malga Panna. From here turn right into the path "Roncac-Col Ros and Costalongia". After a short ascent, the route becomes flat and faces the beautiful Valley of San Pellegrino. Continue walking, cross the bridge and ascend a bit. The path flattens again and arrives into the forest road that brings you to Costalongia Pass. You then descend on the right for a fair distance, cross the Costalongia stream and walk till you reach Malga Roncac. Proceed to the hamlet through Street de Roncac, Street Even and Street de la Madonina, pass by the Church and the fountain "del Dante": from here you can go back to the centre (2 hrs.).

Passepartout

Irresistible markets

There are people looking for the unique product or rather the ancient one, or simply people who love rubbernecking among stands until a special object captures their attention. Shopping in open-air markets is one of the funniest activities to do in holiday. Every day Val di Fassa's open-air markets offer a wide choice of products, such as items for home, natural products for body, traditional textiles, antique furniture, wooden crafts, gastronomic local delicacies, technical clothes for summer and winter sports, mountain footwear and much more. The market takes place on Mondays in Campitello, on Wednesdays in Mazzin and Moena (second and forth Wed. of July and August), on Thursdays in Pozza di Fassa, on Fridays in Soraga, on Saturdays in Canazei and on Sundays in Mazzin.

Did you know that...

They didn't sign the history with their conquests, but they were the first who anonymously storm several peaks of Val di Fassa. Hunters were the first Alpine Guides who accompanied foreigner mountaineers in their deeds. Piz Boè and Sasso Lungo were the most climbed by the "Giagres" (hunters in Ladin), and in the latter a wood cross put by those hunters was found by the climber Johann Alton. In 1856 the baron Ferinand von Richthofer reached the Cornon on Latemar Chain (2791 m) together with Felicetti (hunter and baker).

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
