"I misteri del Cjaslir" according to Chiocchetti

"I misteri del Cjaslir" (The mysteries of Cjaslir) is the first historical romance of Val di Fassa. The story of a bishop and a witch is presented today at 5.30 p.m. in the council Chamber of the Municipal Building in Vigo. The author Fabio Chiocchetti, director of the Cultural Ladin Institute, tells about an event occurred 400 years ago in the area of Bressanone and Fassa, which investigates on the ancestral devotion to the Sanctuary of Santa Giuliana that lies on the hill called Cjaslir. The main characters of the book are Daniel Zen, Prince Bishop born in Vigo, and the weird Dorothea de Freina, known to him since his youth and involved in the process against a group of Fassa's women accused of witchery. In the background religious wars and events characterizing the 17th century.

Did you know that...

In 1907 Karl Bindel, one of the main promoters of the building of the Refuge Bambergia on Fedaia, printed for a publishing house that had important seats in Leipzig and Stuttgart "Die Marmolata" – a volume with few pages and some illustrations. The publication gathered with exhaustive information the main itineraries of excursions and alpine routes on the "Queen of the Dolomites". Particularly it described in detail the hike from Fedaia to Contrin, as well as the ascent to the main peaks known at the time by alpinists and Dolomites' fans.
