In Pozza you go with "A Spas co la Musega"

To the delight of children, at "A Spas co la Musega" there are also the "Studafech da Poza", that is firefighters in Ladin. They will dedicate to all the youngsters a lot of games, action demonstrations and the fire fighter vehicles opened for everybody.

Tonight the atmosphere changes in Pozza thanks to the event "A Spas co la Musega", that will accompany the evening stroll in the central street Strada de Meida (closed to traffic). From 9.00 p.m., the Band of Moena begins with the celebrations with pleasant sounds to listen. "Marco e Gianni" and "Luciano e Millo" makes the people dance playing timeless hits, as well as the "Dolomiten Bier Band" with its rock and pop music pieces. Moreover there are innumerable possibilities to nibble while listening to the music: the greedy "fortaie", the strudel, yogurt with mixed berries, the Lienzner cake, pies and other salted and sweet delicacies. Furthermore, as the shops are open, you can look around among the stands selling handicrafts and much more.

Amazing hikes

From Fontanazzo, through Camerloi to Campitello

Walking along path no. 577, you leave Fontanazzo di Sotto till you arrive at the forest road on the left. Where the latter crosses the forest road coming from Mazzin, ascend rightwards. Pass an aedicule, enter the valley flatland and continue to ascend. You will run into the Dona Refuge: here the path becomes narrow and leads to a plain, where path no. 580 arrives. Cross then Camerloi's meadows, continue to ascend and leave path no. 580 rightward to Pas de Ciarejoles. The path descends to Val Duron, in the wide clearing of Ciamp de Grèvena. Cut then through the alder wood till the valley bottom (0,45h; 3.30 hrs.), getting into the dirt road on the right that leads to Micheluzzi Refuge (1.850 m; 0,45 h; 4,15 hrs.), and from here descend to Campitello (0,45 h; 5 hrs.).

Passepartout

Alba under the moonlight...with taste

An appointment that is really funny and covers a whole street (closed to traffic) in Alba di Canazei. From the little square of the village to the parking area of the ropeways of Ciampac takes place "Alba sotto le stelle" (Alba under the stars), event starting from 9.00 p.m. The proposals for the night are various and flavoursome. More than 25 stands offer tastings of typical Ladin dishes, such as the gulaschsuppe, canederli, candyfloss, cakes, ice creams, wine and grappa: that's all flavours. Not only gastronomic delicacies but also a lot of music with the band "Alpen Boys" that is really beloved in the valley, the duet "I Pazedins" and "Jango", and the performance of the folk groups from Canazei. A lot of fun also for children with the entertainments of Nick the Clown.

Did you know that...

Once upon a time the "maridoz" (wedding time) in Val di Fassa was followed though by many traditions. One of these was the "Sgrign", the wedding chest, which the local artisans decorated with a six-point star, emblem that wished warmth, light and fertility. The Sgrign contained the trousseau and was carried in pump from the girl's family house to the new house. The groom welcomed his wife and her belongings together with a document that indicated the value of each object in dowry. The chest was kept in the "stua" (living room) or in the bedroom.

To participate in the initiatives for guests is compulsory to register at least one day in advance at the Tourist Offices of the Val di Fassa Card (ask your employer accommodation). The activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures all'Apt Val di Fassa.
