Itineraries

FROM VIGO TO VALLONGIA AND TAMION

From the centre of Vigo go towards Costalunga to the bridge on the stream Ruf de Val: follow Strada de Pontac street to a crossroads, keep the left and pass the turnstile, towards the upstream flow. A path leads to a hollow, where the fitness track starts. Continue until you find an equipped area for children. On the other side of the clearing, descend leftwards along the forest road of Vael, until you cross the road leading to Vallonga. Now make your way to the hamlet. Walk up to San Giovanni Nepomuceno's Church and at the fountain turn left. After crossing Strada delle Dolomiti street, descend to the valleys "delle Grave", covered with narrow streams, easy to cross by walking on the right from the crossroads after the second stream. Go up to Tamion. Follow the same track to come back.

The complete schedule of events is available in the tourist offices of the valley.

Did you know that...

During the second half of the nineteenth century, the Ladin language aroused the interest amongst scientists and linguistics who reached the valley and used to ask people from Fassa, usually concentrated on their work in the fields and on looking after the cattle, in order to understand the features of that spoken language. This way, they started to fix the first characteristics of Ladin. Among the most important scholars there was Christian Schneller, Austrian school inspector who in 1870 started off the official studies on the spoken language of the Dolomites, the Anaunia and Friuli.
