HIGHLIGHT

THE COMMUNICATION POWER OF MARCO POZZA

His speech goes directly to the youth's hearts and especially to the prisoners of the Due Palazzi prison of Padova, where he works as chaplain. His name is Marco Pozza and he is the protagonist of the event "Una Chiesa di santi e peccatori" - event of the "Ispirazioni d'estate" festival - that takes place today at 9.00 pm at the eventspavillion of Campitello. Don Pozza, which ended the twelve episodes of "Le ragioni della speranza" on the Italian TV, today tells more about one of the most significant experiences of his life, from the meeting with Pope Francis in occasion of the Jubileum of prisoners, to the complex job in the prison and the scandals on the patavin diocese.

Did you know that...

For many centuries Val di Fassa and its economy remained almost "static". Since 1800 many important historical changes paved the way to crucial transformations. Until 1850, almost all men of the valley used to work as farmers, as reported in military service documents. Afterwards, they start to be registered as bricklayers, painters or carpenters. This change is indicative of an important evolution within the society. The arduous and infertile mountain agriculture underwent a heavy decline, hence local communities began to be mainly composed by wage earnings workers.
