

The meeting is part of "Ispirazioni d'estate", organized by the deanery of Fassa with Val di Fassa Tourist Board and the events committees of the villages.

HIGHLIGHT

THE SHROUD MYSTERIES

In the past days, the Holy Shroud has been under the spotlight, as recent studies (presented by Luigi Garlaschelli and Matteo Borrini) that aim at discrediting the authenticity of the relic have been published. It's not the first time that, during history, doubts and scientific enquiries focus on the shroud that is believed to have enveloped the body of Jesus Christ, deposited from the cross. Tonight talk, entitled "La sindone e la passione di Cristo. Un'inchiesta fra fonti evangeliche, storiche e iconografiche" (The Shroud and the Passion of Christ- An enquiry through evangelical, historical and iconographic sources) is really actual, so, at 9.00 p.m. by the town council in Vigo. The event is part of the festival "Ispirazioni d'estate" and will host the academic Stefano Segreto and father Nicola Ciola, theology teacher at the Pontifical Lateran.

Itineraries

FROM CAMPITELLO TO PIAN

From Piazz de Ciampedel, at the crossroads between Strèda de Salin street and Strèda Sènc Felip e Giacum street, we find on our right the steps of the old chairlift station to Col Rodella. Ascend on a pathway which is characterized by the presence of the small Churches of the Via Crucis, until the hamlet called Pian. You can visit the small village, one of the oldest housing clusters of the valley, where there are still some ancient oven for bread. To go back to Campitello, descend the paved street leading to the street Strèda de Col, and then at the starting point. Alternatively, in the opposite direction you can make for the road to Val Duron. After one kilometer, you reach the street that ascends to Campitello. On the left, pass the bridge of Pian da Molin and continue to Campitello, first on flat than particularly steep.

The complete schedule of the events is available by the tourist offices of the valley.

Did you know that...

The patron saint of Val di Fassa, Santa Giuliana, is celebrated on February, 16. On occasion of the feast, all the inhabitants of the valley used to meet in Vigo after a procession that would last several hours. The parade would depart from two main points: one from Soraga and the other from Penia. Both would become bigger and bigger while crossing the villges and, arrived in Vigo, would go up to the hill where the church dedicated to the Saint is set, that only few people could enter. The others would remain outside, on the Cjaslir, that was a place of cult event before the arrival of Christianity in Val di Fassa.

Initiatives reserved to guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment) enrolments required by the previous day at the Tourist Offices. Activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board
