"PANPERS": FROM COLORADO TO CANAZEI

One of the most appreciated comic couples of the Italian TV arrives tonight in the square Piazz Marconi in Canazei to make everybody laugh and have fun. It's the duo "Panpers", alias Andrea Pisani and Luca Peracino (both born in 1987), who have become famous by taking part in the comic programme "Colorado" since 2009. They have also been part of the TV series "In Tour" on Disney Channel and then of "Shot Time", always keeping in touch with their fans through Youtube. Not only, they have also reached the big screen, acting in two Italian films ("Fuga di cervelli" by Paolo Ruffini and "I babysitter" by Giovanni Bognetti). They've even embarked on a discographic adventure with a couple of tracks that came out in summer 2017.

Continue to go up, crossing the stream several times. Cross the grazing and reach the upper wall of the Val de Dona (2.30 h). Did you know that...

The first "official" news about the group of Catinaccio comes from the narration of an excursion that dates back to 25th August 1860 by some English mountaineers that told about it to the British press. On that day, the group composed by Gilbert Churchill and some friends, after having slept at the hotel "Corona d'Oro" in Vigo, reached the Ciampediè. Everybody was conquered by the majesty of the hollow, surrounded by the rocky walls of the dolomitic group. The place was also reported in the famous book by Churchill, "The Dolomites Mountain", published in London in 1868.

WE THANK
