Did you know that...

The "mana" is the traditional flower and alpine herbs posy picked on 14th August by the Ladin people on the pastures, and let it bless for the Feast of the Assumption, in Ladin "Sènta Maria Maor". The bunch of flowers, recalling the Mary's fragrance, had to be hanged in the loft, were it blighted, in order to protect home, or it hanged up in the stable to protect the cattle. In case of illness, the animals were nursed with an infusion of "mana". The custom is still in vogue as the candlelight walk for the Assumption of Mary, that take place today in Moena, Pera and Canazei (9.00 pm)
