In case of bad weather, the concert of "Me + Marie" takes place by the refuge Crepa Neigra.

HIGHLIGHT

"ME + MARIE" ON THE GREEN STAGE OF CIAMPAC

After leaving the "Ganes" – well-known female band from Val Badia, that have gained success in the Ladin valleys and in Germany for several years, Maria Moling has undertaken a new music adventure: "Me + Marie". An artistic project that was born from the encounter between Maria (voice and drums) and Roland Vögtli, Rumantsch speaking Swiss guitarist and music composer from the Canton of Grisons, that will be on stage today, at 12.00 p.m. at Ciampac, on the occasion of Val di Fassa Panorama Music's section, "Minority Languages, Youth and Jazz Music". The two, who won the international contest of Minority Languages "Suns" in 2015 and then have undertaken several collaborations with German musicians, perform today with Clemens Graf Fink von Finkenstein (keyboards, percussions, voice) and Jacob Foord (bass, voice).

Itineraries

FROM RONCHI TO FANGO

Start from the area named "Ronchi", nearby Moena. From the overpass of the Lusia ski slope on the state road from Moena to San Pellegrino pass, continue driving for 700 m until the small park area on the right, before the bridge on Rif de Sèn Pelegrin stream. Leave the car and walk straight ahead on the forest road, parallel to the stream. The trail is composed by flat tracks that alternate with few easy ascents and three ramps, which do not exceed 250 m of length. Along the trail you will find a point of sparse trees (where - in the past - an avalanche swept away the wood); leave on your right path n. 625 (leading towards Malga Colvere) and cross the stream in the area of "Fango" nearby a well-equipped picnic area with tables and benches (2 hrs. from the parking). Come back along the same path.

Did you know that...

"A painter between myth and reality": this show is called Francesco Rizzi (1868 -1952), the painter from Campitello who in 1922 took part in the Biennale di Venezia together with several futurists. But he will soon detach from the avant-guards that do not share his vision of the nature as the expression of an eternal truth. In 1933, while in Oxford, Rizzi has even the chance to realise the portrait of Albert Einstein. He is much appreciated for his paintings of the landscapes of the Dolomites and his most famous work is "Letter from the front" dating back to 1915.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
