HIGHLIGHT

"SI STA COME D'AUTUNNO"

This year, last year of commemoration of the hundredth anniversary of the First World War, there are several dedicated events and exhibition. Among these, "Si sta come d'autunno", tonight at 9.00 p.m. by the Theatre Navalge in Moena. The show, from an idea of Ezio Vinante, presents songs, texts and pictures to avoid forgetting, in a collaboration between the choir Genzianella and the theatre company Lucio Deflorian from Tesero. The narrating voices of Giacomo Goss and Michele Longo present stretches of texts by Emilio Lussu and Alcide De Gasperi, but also texts from the diaries of soldiers and from the diary of Melania Moiola from Dro. The repertoire of the Genzianella choir, instead, includes some of the most famous mountain chants, while the projected pictures are taken from films by Luis Trenkner and videos of that time from the Photo Archive of the Province of Trento.

LAYERED HISTORY

WORKSHOP FOR ADULTS, AN INTRODUCTION TO THE GEOLOGY OF VAL DI FASSA.

Did you know that...

The economic situation in Val di Fassa registered a feeble recovery around the end of the XIX Century. This gave quite a good push to the cooperation between the locals. The primary goal was to make foodstuffs (often running low at that time) accessible to all the associated, without undue price-rising determined by shopkeepers, that were the last stage of the chain between producers and costumers. This is how the first group holdings were born, holdings that we still find in the villages.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
