HIGHLIGHT

“SIBERIAN BLUES” IN CANAZEI

The most evocative train journey of all times, the Trans-Siberian, narrated in a romance. Today, at 9.00 p.m., by the town council meeting room in Canazei, Valentino Corona, author of “Blues Siberiano”, presents his book, for the festival “Incontri con i libri e gli autori” promoted by the library of the village. The text deals with a journey of more than 20 thousand kilometers, from Slovakia to Moscow and then along the mythical Trans-Siberian, till the end of the line Vladivostok, during which two men, distant for age and experience compare with each other. On the background the Siberia, with its never-ending lands and a story full of barbarities: a reality that looks uncatchable to westerners. Valentino Corona, then, enriches the narration with important historical and literary references....

FROM FUCIADE TO CIRELLE PASS TO ALBA

The landscape is extraordinary from this saddle, and you can admire the most beautiful peak reaching 3000 m: southward the Pale di San Martino, westward the ridge of Cima Uomo, in front of you Cima Ombrettola and Sasso Vernale, beyond which you can recognize the imposing vertical face of Marmolada. Keep going on path no. 607 that descends through broad gravel gullies, and underneath Sasso Vernale. Turn left towards Val Contrin and its Refuge (2015 m; 6,10 hrs.). ## Did you know that...

With “Grottol” would once be indicated a sort of comedy, like an intertwined, improvised, game of dialogues and plays with pastoral goals that would take place along the valley, in the open air in summer or in the “stue” (rooms of the houses where the whole family would join during the day) in winter. “Grottol” would be used to tell in an ironic and burlesque way stories or facts about people from the valley, but also more important facts that had a considerable “appeal” among the Ladin people.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
