HIGHLIGHT

“I GIARDINI DI LUCIO”, THE CONCERT

A tribute, or better a real party, for the fans of one of most appreciated singer-songwriter of the Italian music: Lucio Battisti. Today at 9.00 p.m., on the stage located nearby the events pavilion in Pozza, “Zona Italiana 4tet” gets on the stage with the show “I giardini di Lucio” and presents a selection of the most appreciated songs by Battisti (1943-1998). A tribute, 20 years after the death of the brilliant songwriter who has given us a real collection of “pearls” such as “Pensieri e parole”, “Acqua azzurra, acqua chiara”, “Fiori rosa, fiori di pesco”, “29 settembre”, to name but a few of them. Battisti, who during his career has sold more than 25 million copies, is considered one of the main composers and performers of his tracks, as well as one of the best authors for other artists.

Itineraries

FROM MOENA TO MOUNT TOÀC

This “High-level walk” starts from the picturesque hamlet of Sorte, over Moena: follow the easy road that leads to Malga Peniola. Before reaching it, take pathway no. 521. The taxing trail passes by the area named Frata and turns towards Coston da Ciamp, arriving at the peak Sas da Ciamp (2.193 m; 2,30 hrs.). Here, from this high and panoramic point, a lot of hiking trails begin: you can go back along the same footpath or expand your hike. Fit hikers can descend from Forcella Peniola first on path no. 524 and then on path no. 517 till Costalunga Pass and thence go back to Moena along path no. 519 (6.30 hrs.). Alternatively, it is possible to walk along the ridge of Toàc pastures, reaching Mount Toàc (2.319 m). Along the footpath no. 517 you can return to Malga Peniola and then to Moena (5,30 hrs.).

The complete schedule of the events is available by the tourist offices of the valley.

Did you know that...

In the nineteenth century Val di Fassa peaks represented an amazing challenge for alpine pioneers. In 1887 Georg Winkler, a seventeen-year-old Bavarian, came to the valley and decided to climb the Torri del Vajolet alone. He chose the highest: with his canvas shoes, with soles wrapped in string to help him grip the rocks better, he ascended with a rope, at the summit of which he fixed a hook, which hitched on natural handholds. He chinned with the only strength of his arms. He reached the peak and he wrote a note with his name on it, signing that way his conquest of that tower that since then bears his name.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
