HIGHLIGHT

"CHEF PER ARIA": DINNER BY CABLE CAR

How do we officially launch the summer season in Val di Fassa? With a dinner between the earth and the sky. "Chef per aria" (Chefs in the air) is the name of the event that takes place on June 15th on the cable car Alba-Col dei Rossi. Its panoramic cabins turn, on the occasion, into an uncommon dining room that jumps along 880 metres climbing from Alba di Canazei (1495 m) to Col dei Rossi (2376 m). Here, at sunset, when the Dolomites turn pink, you can taste the recipes of twentyish among the best cook of the association "Cheghes de Fascia", guided by the starred chef Stefano Ghetta. You do not only have the chance to take part in an exclusive dinner (80 participants max.), but also to do good: the proceeds of the event will be given to charity to a local association.

Itineraries

FROM POZZA TO MALGA CROCIFFISSO

Starting from the hamlet of Meida, in Pozza di Fassa, go up along the street Strada de Meida that soon becomes Strada Ruf de Ruacia. You will reach the bridge that crosses the stream near the restaurant La Soldanella. Not much before the bridge, on the right, you will enter a nice dirt road. The path starts with a light climb, that becomes steeper while going up along some hairpin turns, passing through meadows and woods. Afterwards, the track becomes flat again until it meets the paved road that leads to Val San Nicolò. With another short walk along a slight climb, you will reach Malga Crocifisso (1526 mt). Come back along the paved road that leads to the village.

The complete schedule of the events is available by the tourist offices of the valley.

Did you know that...

The inhabitants of Pera used, in the past, to reach Tires for trade, passing through the Catinaccio. They would go up along the Vajolet valley and reach the tavern "Alla Rosa" at Soial, then the hollow of Gardeccia to go to west in the dip "Buja de Davoi". Otherwise, they would go across the saddle "Forcela de Davoi" or, up to the north from Gardeccia, across the "Porte negre". From the top of the Vajolet valley, they would reach the Sella del Principe (Prince saddle), named after a prince bishop from Bressanone who once passed through it to reach Val di Fassa. From there, through the "Conca del Principe (Hollow of the Prince) and the Ciamin valley, they would finally reach Tires.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
