

The first consecration of the church of Saint Vigilio, which has been renovated and widened through the centuries, dates back to 1164.

HIGHLIGHT

MOENA CELEBRATES ITS SAINT VIGILIO

The feast for the patron saint of Moena, San Vigilio, takes place today in the town-centre, between the squares Piazz de Sotegrava and Piazz de Ramon. Differently from last year, the celebrations concentrate in one day, respecting the most ancient traditions in any case. Among these, the awakening of the village at 8.30 a.m. with the music of the local brass band that, after the Holy Mass (at 10.00 a.m.) with the participation of the Canticum Novum ensemble, parades along the streets of the village towards the square Piazz de Ramon, where it stops for a concert. The kitchens open at twelve in the square and there a traditional dish will be served, with music and entertainment for the children. In the evening, a concert of the Enrosadira choir takes place in the square Piazz de Sotegrava, followed at 7 p.m. by the "pasta party", organized by the Alpini group of Moena and at 8 p.m. by the music of the Tirock band.

Did you know that...

After 1808 the Bavarian Kingdom, that included Val di Fassa as well, a hard fight began against the church, that had dominated until few time before, together with the principality of Bressanone and Trento. Several cloisters and monasteries were closed, and the use of bells was forbidden in some ceremonies. But above all it was forbidden to play the Hail Mary, that farmers used to hear while working in the fields, on the grazing or in the woods and that, especially for those who were working far from the belfries, marked a specific moment of the day, with habits and ancient traditions.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
