HIGHLIGHT

IF THERE'S BEER THERE'S A FESTIVAL TOO

Water, malt, yeast, hop. These are the ingredients that, wisely processed, give one of the most appreciated alcoholic drinks: beer. And, among the most fashionable versions at the moment, there are the mountain beers to which Campitello has been dedicating the festival "La Bira te Fascia" for some years. On July 19th and 20th, from 5 p.m. to 12 a.m. by the events pavilion, take place the clou days of the festival that gives the chance to taste mountain products and enjoy much music. Do not miss today (at 5.30 p.m.) the "Tasting in the wood" (walk through the trees with beer and food tasting (that will be back also tomorrow (at 3.30 and at 5.30) and the evenings on full blast: on Saturday (at 9.00 p.m.) with the disco-funk group from Bolzano "The Giggers" and on Sunday with the folk-rock music by Cisco from the Modena City Ramblers.

Itineraries

FROM MOENA TO LUSIA PASS

To reach Lusia pass, go up from the village of Moena towards Ronchi (by car or by bus), location from which departs the cabin lift of the Lusia Alp. Once on the lift, reach the intermediate station and go on along a gravel path that starts slightly uphill and, then becomes flat till Rifugio La Rezila at 1761 metres. From here, the itinerary goes on along a dirt road that goes constantly up, mostly in the shadow of the wood, and leads to a wide and green saddle on Lusia Pass at 2051 metres (1 hours), from which you can admire the view all around you over the Pale di San Martino and the whole Val di Fassa

Did you know that...

Virginio Dezulian del Garber, son of Maria Piaz "the Pordoi's mother", was the favourite nephew of Tita Pia. He was a strong and agile guide, and accompanied on the peaks King Albert from Belgium and other noble people. He opened many ways and in 1926, with his uncle and the heralds Bonacossa, he took part in the "first" adventure to the north-western edge of the Schenon del Latemar, while in 1928, also with Tita, he opened a difficult itinerary on the northern wall of Catinaccio. In 1929 he managed the refuge Vajolet with his wife Pina, succeeding his uncle and in 1931, he and Tita reached the southern pillar of Sass Pordoi. He died at the age of 53, in 1954, of an incurable disease.
