HIGHLIGHT

"HOUSTON, WE HAVE A PROBLEM", BY LUCIO GARDIN

On July 20th, the first 50 years from the Moon Landing were celebrated. Lucio Gardin, tonight at 9.15 p.m. by the Gran Ciasa in Soraga, gives his own, ironic interpretation of it. With "Houston abbiamo un problema. Cabaret per lunatici e allunati", Gardin makes the public laugh through clever jokes and the acute portrait of Italians' attitude, of the inhabitants of Trentino in particular. The Moon Landin is the occasion of analysing pros and cons of the human being. Gardin is not only an experienced comedian, but he can also boast an appreciated carrier as scriptwriter, director and author of several broadcasts on Sky, Rai and Mediaset.

Did you know that...

In the past in Val di Fassa, on the day of the marriage the groom would reach the house of the bride, and the wedding procession would follow them from there. At the end of the ceremony the "caneveres", the winemakers, used to serve the wine to the guests, while some other youths, chosen by the spouses, the "camarites" and the "camarich" (nubile girls and bachelors), would guide the procession. Soon after that, there would be a "break": the "trèr l zendèl" of the boys, who would stop the procession by pulling a rope from one side of the street to the other one. The spouses would go on, but only after paying a toll: with candies or coins.
