Don Marco Pozza, in autumn 2017, dedicated a broadcast on TV 2000 to "Lord's Prayer".

HIGHLIGHT

"MARY: A MODERN-DAY LADY", ACCORDING TO DON MARCO POZZA

Don Marco Pozza, volcanic chapelman of the supermax prison Due Palazzi of Padua and well-known character of TV 2000, comes back to Fassa today. And he does it at PalaDolomites in Campestrin for the festival "Ispirazioni d'estate". Don Marco, who for some years has been a friend and one of the most appreciated guests of the festival organized by the Deanery of Fassa with the local Tourist Board and the events committee of the villages, will explain tonight the nuances of the most popular among the prayers: Hail Mary. It's on this prayer that don Marco has built the namesake broadcast on TV 2000 (on air during last autumn), that involved famous characters such as Michelle Hunziker, or the Israeli singer Noa, as well as ladies next door. An operation done to fully understand the prayer, even through the words of Pope Francesco.

Did you know that...

In 1894 a hotel-hostel for wanderers and alpinists was opened in 1894. The owner was Carlo Valenitni, and the refuge was named after him. It was located beside the pass, on the side of Val di Fassa, along the way to Gardena. The building had a dining room and 25 beds distributed in 16 rooms, and during the first days of his opening was captured by the photographer Franz Dantone Pascalin from Canazei. The hut had been built also thanks to a loan from the SAT of 400 forints, on condition that the yellow and blue flag and the emblem of the Società Alpinisti Tridentini were exposed.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
