Did you know that...

On July 1st, 1915, Insom and Penia were evacuated because they were too close to the front on the Marmolada. The Italian troopers (Val di Fassa was part of the Austrian territory at that time) were close. Even nowadays, it is evoked as a very sad day, the soldiers helped the crying children and women charge the strictly necessary things on the wagons. The men were all at the front, only the aged ones were still in the village and they pulled the wagon to which cows and beefs were yoked. The inhabitants of the two small hamlets from Fassa were hosted, mostly, in the near Val di Fiemme.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
