

In case of bad weather, the show "Fish and Bubbles" by Michele Cafaggi takes place by the events pavilion in loc. Ischia in Campitello.

HIGHLIGHT

"FISH AND BUBBLES" TO DREAM

On a sunny day, a makeshift fisherman is persecuted by the only, cheeky cloud that dips him, wherever he goes. But he doesn't worry, because he is made of soap and his thoughts are bubbles. This is the plot of the involving show, with water games and soap bubbles, taking place tonight at 9 p.m. in the square of Campitello. The artist that presents it is Michele Cafaggi, who has been performing since the beginning of the Nineties, and has been one of the first in Italy to work with such a poetic and evanescent material like the soap, which transforms into instant creativity. In 2016, Cafaggi also won the national award "Franco Enriquez" for his "fine, entrancing" shows "rich in clowning, outcome of an attentive research and of a complete mimic and actor maturity" (quoting the award motivation).
