

After the "Night Show" the slope becomes a white arena for the amusement of both adults and children.

HIGHLIGHT

THE "WHITE NIGHT" IN CANAZEI

An unexpected "snow spray" colours the town-centre of Canazei, in particular Piaz Marconi and Strèda Roma, in white. So, from 9 p.m., the proven summer "Night Show" that expresses all its charm, thanks to a preparation that takes place some hours before: the snowflakes specifically realised by the Ice stadium in Alba are brought by camion to the villages and then smoothed to make the candid stage for the night. Punctual at the showtime, the ski instructors from the ski school Marmolada appear and perform in slalom and serpentine to the rhythm of music, showing the ski technique and heating the atmosphere with freestyle acrobatics. The final is entrusted to a romantic torchlight procession that gathers all the "actors" on the slope for the ritual greetings.

Itineraries

FROM MOENA TO SORAGA AND BACK

From the square Piaz de Sotegrava in Moena, go up along the street Strada Salejada and then on the right along Strada de Moena. Once passed over the "mountain training police centre" go on along Strada de Ischia, than down to the sport centre and take the bike and pedestrian track that goes up for a stretch and then becomes flat, and then go down towards Soraga. Pass the underpass beside the bridge on the stream Avisio and reach the playground. From here, go back to Moena along the main road, towards the tourist office, and then go on along Strada de Palua. Pass the meadows above the Soraga lake and reach Moena along Strada Sasslonch, Strada de Ischia, Strada de Moena and, finally, Strada Salejada that leads back to the square.

Did you know that...

Red and white carnations, in the past, were very popular flowers in Val di Fassa. Girls of marriable age would cultivate them specifically to give them to the suitors that would propose. Young wives, instead, would pin them on their husbands' hats. In the end, it is believed that old ladies loved to keep them in their houses, in memory of their past youth.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
