

The tonight show by the company from Trento "I teatri soffiati" (established in 1998) is directed by Alessio Kogoj, who also takes part in the play.

HIGHLIGHT

LAST CALL FOR "RAGAZZI A TEATRO"

The second edition of "Ragazzi a Teatro" comes to an end with "Mamma Orsa", tonight at 9 p.m. by the parish theatre in Campitello. The festival, presenting 12 shows since July, 9th in Mazzin and in Campitello, has hosted some of the best Italian companies, specialised in show for youngsters, which have brought to Fassa their most interesting performances. Tonight the company from Trento "I Teatri Soffiati" puts on stage a story that gives a preview of the snow season: in a place hit by snowstorms and cold winds, "Mamma Orsa" is searching her missing baby bear, trying to save him from the wolves that hunt in that area. The show touches the universal themes of the feelings, such as: fear, abandonment, love, tenderness and courage. The show is also characterized by involving music and unexpected events.

Itineraries

FROM VIGO TO SANTA GIULIANA

From the town-centre of Vigo, take the street Strada de Piz until you will meet a "festil", which is a covered fountain. From here, go on along the street Strada de Sent'Uliana and, once passed the last house on the left, go up along the road the paved road that leads to the wall that surrounds Saint Giuliana's church, patron saint of Val di Fassa. The presence of the temple, located on a pre-historic place of worship, is reported since 1237. The short but steep walk makes necessary a moment of break, insomuch that you will meet some benches to sit down and admire the landscape and the village below. Near the church there is also the Austian-Hungarian cimitero that can be visit before undertaking the comfortable dirt path that crosses the path to the hamlet of Vallonga. Descending, you will reach the street Strada de Pontac and then, turning left you will reach the point of departure.

Did you know that...

The solitaire ring, the beautiful diamond nestled in a golden ring, is the classic gift that a man usually gives to a lady to propose to her. In the past, instead, it was a habit in Val di Fassa to give to his future wife a spinning wheel (symbol of feminine dignity) as a pledge of love.
