HIGHLIGHT

THE STORY OF THE GENEROUS DEVIL

The book "Il Diavolo generoso" came out in 2018, on occasion of the 70th anniversary from the death of Tita Piaž (1879-1948), but the presentations to the public go on, such as today by the Gran Ciasa in Soraga at 9.15 p.m. The author, Alfredo Paluselli, whose grandfather was a companion of the climber, reconstructs the story of the alpinist called "the Devil of the Dolomites", for his courage in the sport and in everyday life. Throughout the 200 pages, the extraordinary adventure of the alpinist is narrated, his pioneering and heroic alpinism and the idea on tourism of Piaž, who went through two World War and made some political choices, such as the irredentism and the anti-fascism, that put him at risk. Paluselli tells his story with the help of a rich series of documents, some of which unpublished.

Itineraries

FROM CANAZEI TO GRIES

This easy walk starts from the centre of Canazei. From here, run down the Roma Street and take the Cercenà Street on the left. Few meters after the bridge on the Avisio river, walk leftwards on the higher path that skirts upward the park of the Residence Villa Avisio. Continue beyond the plank that signs the limit of the meadows, keep on walking by the skilift Avisio, and follow its stream for a while. Then, you will cross a little wood and, after a short descent, walk again down by the stream. Walk nearby a wide pasture, thereafter, enter the wood cobbled with a gorgeous moss-covered carpet. Then, come out on the state road near Pènt (=bridge in Ladin) de la Roa. Overpass it and come back to Canazei along Pareda Street.

The complete schedule of the events is available by the tourist offices of the valley.

Did you know that...

In the past, floods were a constant danger for the villages in Val di Fassa. In fact, the streams had no embankment, so they would often overflow, flood the fields and damage roads and houses. Moreover, in case of big flooding, landslides would often detouch and bring rocks, trees and a big amount of earth down to the valley.

Initiatives reserved to the guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment). Enrolments required within the previous day by the Tourist Offices. The activities are reserved to the guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board.
