TOP NEWS

THAT SOLDIER AT SAN PELLEGRINO

Like a bolt from the blue the recently found remains of the alpine bring us back 100 years to that times of war. Just one year after the remembrance of the centenary in Val di Fassa, the Great War returns violently from the past. On the Costabella summits by San Pellegrino Pass, some relics of an alpine have been found by Lino De Francesco from Moena member of the association "Sul fronte dei ricordi". The skeleton, returned by a scree, probably belongs to young boy (given the good conditions of his teeth) member of the 206th company "Val Cordevole" which was employed during the summer of 1915 in this area. According to Michele Simonetti Federspiel, curator of the exhibit "La Gran Vera" (The Great War) in Moena, the main evidences about the story of this young soldier are some objects found right close to him such as: boots, munitions for a '91 model rifle, one grenade Sipe and an

Itineraries

THE ANCIENT PATH FROM MAZZIN TO VAL GARDENA

This captivating itinerary starts from Pozza: to set off for Val San Nicolò, leave the car at the car park Saùch and ascend along the narrow wood that hides, on the left, the picturesque path "Strada de Rusci", so called because it was built by the Russian prisoners during the first World War. Follow the path, which alternates flat segments to moderate ascents, until you come across path n. 641 to "Lach de Lauscel" (Lagusel Lake). Turn left and cross the stream "Ruf de Sèn Nicolò" walking on the comfortable gangway above it and enter the wood. The path continues descending to an alluvial stony ground and then crossing the bed of the stream "Giaf". Make your way now to the dirt road of the last stretch of Val San Nicolò. Going down to Baita Ciampié (1.826 m) you will reach the paved street to Saùch car park (2,15 h).

Did you know that...

In the ancient times the inhabitants of Mazzin, Campestrin and Fontanazzo could reach Val Gardena or Castelrotto along the steep paths through the valleys Val Udai and Val di Dona, in order to trade food and wares. Actually, they did not like these pathways, and preferred to walk along the valley bottom and then ascend the dirt roads departing from Pera and Campitello. Here there were more frequented roads (that means less dangerous) and above all not as inaccessible as the others to carry heavy wagon with products, food and provender.
