"PENGUIN CAFÈ": THE LAST CONCERT IN VAL DI FASSA FOR "THE SOUNDS"

The concerts in Val di Fassa of "The Sounds of the Dolomites" end today at 12 p.m., at Ciampac. On the green stage at 2.000 metres performs "Penguin Café", which means Arthur Jeffes who involves in his project of "heavenly melodies" talents such as Cass Browne, Neil Codlind, Oli Langford and Darren Berry. The interest of Jeffes – son of the musician and composer Emily Young and of Simon Jeffes, founder of the "Penguin Café Orchestra" in 1974 – for spatial music was born ages ago and he has even written tracks for the Keplero project by Nasa. Did you know that...

Virginio Dezulian del Garber, the son of Maria Piaz "La mare del Pordoi", was the favourite nephew of Tita Pia. He was a strong and agile guide, who led at altitude King Albert of Belgium and other nobles. He opened many new tracks and in 1926, with his uncle and the counts Bonacossa, he took part in the "first" venture to the nord-ovest peak of Schenon del Latemar, while in 1928, again with Tita, he opened a tough itinerary on the northern side of the Catinaccio. In 1929, he succeeded his uncle in managing the Vajolet refuge with his wife Pina and in 1931, with Tita, overcame the southern pillar of Sass Pordoi. He died in 1954 at the age of 53 due to a terminal disease.
