Did you know that...

In the past child emigration (boys as shepherds and girl as housekeepers or baby-sitters) in the area of the Dolomites had several flows: Boys from Val di Fassa, to earn something, used to go and work as shepherds for the rich "bachegn" (farmers) in Gardena, whereas the youths from Gardena, to live better, used to go to Tyrol. Meanwhile, the boys from Fodomo worked on the alps of Fassa because, once upon a time, it was said that: "If people in Fassa were poor, in Fodomo life was so hard that everybody should have starved".

Initiatives reserved to guests with the Val di Fassa Card (ask your hotel/apartment) enrolments required by the previous day at the Tourist Offices. Activities are reserved for guests of the associated structures of Val di Fassa Tourist Board
