In case of bad weather the concert of Thomas Zehetmair (in the pic) moves to the Cinema Marmolada in Canazei at 5.30.

HIGHLIGHTS

ZEHETMAIR PLAYING "CAPRICES" AT VAJOLET

The festival "I Suoni delle Dolomiti" is back with the great classical music and the notes of a virtuoso of the violin like the Austrian musician Thomas Zehetmair today at 1 p.m. in concert at the Vajolet refuge. In the heart of Catinaccio, the violinist performs playing the award-winning opera "Caprices" by Nicolò Paganini. Zehetmair (born in 1961), considered as one of the best violinist of his generation, boasts a long list of successes during his career as soloist, orchestra leader and chamber music performer. To the well-established repertoire, the Austrian artist adds an excellent knowledge of contemporary music. The concert location is reachable from Pera by chairlift or shuttlebus (against payment) to Gardeccia and 1 hour long walk along path n. 546.

Itineraries

INTO THE WILD VALSORDA

Every logger of Fassa knows this valley. The wonderful and wild Valsorda, which brings to the Latemar, stores along the namesake stream the tracks of the old "cava de le bore" (cave of trunks), a passage for logs and woods five km long, built with stones and rocks, attentively studied, from its slopes to its bends. In winter the frozen cave used to become a sleigh slope where, until the Seventies, thousands of cubic metres of wood passed by. To discover this itinerary, start from Forno di Moena, following path n. 516, which starts from the entrance of the cave, which will be crossed in many spots. Arrived at Valsorda dairy (1676 m - 2 hrs), expert hikers can go on towards Bivouac Latemar (2365 m - 1 h), whereas the less trained can walk along path n. 517 leading to Medil, thence to Forno or to Medil.

The complete schedule of events is available in the tourist offices of the valley.

Did you know that...

During the first year of the Great War, Austro-Hungarian soldiers received a ration of food which included: 700 gr. of bread, 400 gr of beef meat and 140 gr of pulses or vegetables, all completed by two cubes of coffee ersatz, some wine or beer. Italian soldiers, on the other hand, consumed more carbohydrates with a ration of: 600 gr of bread, 100 gr of meat with pasta or rice, a quarter liter of wine, grappa, liqueur and coffee. From 1916, when the plantations were halved and the livestock decimated, soldiers (as well as the people) saw their food ration reduced both in quantity and quality.
