HIGHLIGHTS

A THREE-DAYS TRIP TO MOENA...IN TURKEY

An unexpected exotic heart beats in the Ladin village of Moena which from today to Sunday celebrates the "Festa di Turchia" a traditional feast in Turkey neighborhood. Celebrations recall ancient eastern flavours with sultan, soldier with scimitar and odalisques. Its name's origin dates back to immemorial times, but it is a special occasion for guests and locals to celebrate. The feast is enliven by food, music with the band "I Bonderes" and traditions at 9 p.m. with the parade across the village. On Saturday and Sunday the party starts with the breakfast at Ciasa Cioto, and from 10 am to 12 am local craftsmanship and traditional cuisine spiced up with some Turkish flavours. Both evenings the choir Enrosadira performs at 9 pm by the Tabià de l Coronzin, with final folk dancing in Piazz de Turchia square.

Itineraries

FROM POZZA TO SASSO UNDICI

To undertake this "Amazing hike" you have to drive from the village of Pozza to the mountain hut Malga Crocifisso (1.526 m) and continue driving till you find the car park at Pian da l'Ancona. Leave your car and from here take path n. 603 that leads to Baita Monzoni. Before arriving at Taramelli refuge, turn right into path n. 624 that ascends till Vallaccia refuge at 2.275 m. You will walk along the path that leads to Costella, till it crosses path no. 615 towards Forcella Vallaccia. From here an easy path track leads to Sasso Undici (2.501 m; 0,30 h). From the summit, walk back to the mountain pass and follow again path no. 615, leading to Bivouac Zeni and then to the crossroads with path n. 615 B (towards Malga Crocifisso). From here walk on the easy road that leads you back to the starting point (5,30 ore).

Did you know that...

In the nineteenth century Val di Fassa's peaks represented an amazing challenge for alpine pioneers. In 1887 Georg Winkler, a Bavarian seventeen-year-old, came to the valley and decided to climb the Torri del Vajolet alone. He chose the highest: with his canvas shoes, with soles wrapped in string to help him grip the rocks better, he ascended with a rope, at the summit of which he fixed a hook, which hitched on natural handholds. He chinned with the only strength of his arms. He reached the peak and he wrote a note with his name on it, signing that way his conquest of that tower that since then keeps his name.
