HIGHLIGHTS

"A LIFE'S VALUE" BETWEEN SCIENCE AND CONSCIENCE

Speakers: Luisella Battaglia, full professor of moral philosophy at the University of Genoa and Benincasa of Naples and Maurizio Mauri, president of the Oncological Centre of Florence, director of the European Center of Biomedical research. ## Itineraries

FROM CANAZEI TO GRIES

From the centre of Canazei run down the street Strèda de Roma and take the street Strèda de Cercenà on the left. Span the bridge on the Avisio River, and after few meters walk following the left side on a higher footpath that skirts upward the park of the Residence Villa Avisio. Continue beyond the plank that signs the limit of meadows, walking by the ski lift Avisio, and then descend to the stream following its bank for some time. You then cross a little wood, and after a short ascent, you will walk down again near the stream. Walk nearby a wide summer pasture, thereafter a wood cobbled with a gorgeous moss-covered carpet of several species. You come out then on the state road near the Pènt (=bridge) de la Roa. Span it and come back to Canazei through the street Strèda de Parèda.

The complete schedule of events is available in the tourist offices of the valley.

Did you know that...

"Lo che i pré d'istà l'è dut, l'è dut 'n fior e che monc e ciel i à 'l più bel color, lo che se pel gòder pasc de paradìs, lo l'è Val de Fascia, lo l'è mie paìsc" ("There, where the meadows in the summer are plenty of flowers, and the mountains and sky have the most beautiful colours; there, where you can enjoy a piece of heaven, there is Val di Fassa, there is my land", in Ladin). This is the refrain of "La Cianzon de Val de Fascia", valley's Hymn. The music, which is particularly poetic, is composed by Luigi Canori (1908- 1991), while the text by Francesco Dezulian del Garber (1898-1986).
